AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS FOUNDATION 2010 ANNUAL REPORT

THANK YOU!

Your gifts are helping the Foundation fund ASCE strategic initiatives that make a difference.

> $700,000

Developing Solutions for a Sustainable World

In 2010, you helped fund ASCE's Sustainability Action Plan and the development of a Sustainability Infrastructure Project Rating Program. This new infrastructure rating system will use a set of objective-based goals to guide the engineer, owner, constructor, regulator and policymaker to provide more effective levels of reliability, resilience, efficiency, organizational adaptability and overall project performance. For more details about the rating system, please go to www.sustainableinfrastructure.org.

> $100,000

Changing the Conversation, Advancing National Infrastructure Improvement

You also helped support a National Infrastructure Vision Summit on the nation's failing infrastructure. Experts from within and outside the infrastructure field met to discuss critical barriers to and strategies for accelerating public infrastructure improvement and development in the United States.

> $75,000

The Failure to Act: The Economic and Social Costs of Poor Infrastructure

Your contributions will help fund economic studies, beginning in 2011, to find out: What the Cost of Doing Nothing Is, as America's failing infrastructure continues to affect the nation's economic prosperity and individuals' quality of life. The study will target the following areas: _____, beginning with transportation infrastructure.

MISSION STATEMENT

The ASCE Foundation's mission is to provide support through fundraising and philanthropy for programs and initiatives that enhance quality of life and promote the civil engineering profession.

Your Foundation. Your Future.

THANK YOU!

National Engineers Week 2010: Co-Sponsor

As co-sponsor of the 2010 National Engineers Week, ASCE developed activities around the theme, "Celebrating Engineering Volunteerism." The theme supported the 20th anniversary of the DiscoverE educational outreach program, built upon a 2009 initiative to record one million hours of volunteer outreach, and advanced the National Engineers Week's strategic goal to foster further collaboration among various volunteer participants.

And finally, in 2010, to underscore the importance of maintaining the Class A status of the ASCE headquarters building in Reston, Va., the Foundation established a Building Reserve Fund with an initial investment of $500,000. The Building Reserve Fund will ensure that an adequate reserve is maintained to appropriately finance future capital expenditures for unexpected and emergency repairs and improvements to this major asset of the Foundation.

OTHER WAYS TO GIVE TO THE ASCE FOUNDATION

HONORARIUM AND SPEAKER FEES

Do you have an upcoming speaking engagement? Consider donating your honorarium or speaking fees to the ASCE Foundation. It's a simple way to support civil engineering. Simply complete the "Honorarium and Speaker Fees" form that can be found at www.asce.org/foundation and have your fee sent directly to the ASCE Foundation.

CELEBRATE THE MEMORY OF A LOVED ONE OR RECOGNIZE AND HONOR SPECIAL MILESTONES

Gifts celebrating the memory of a loved one who cared about the ASCE Foundation and gifts in honor of a special person or special personal milestones—such as a graduation, birthday, wedding or an award, are a wonderful way to support the Foundation and honor someone special.

MATCHING GIFTS INCREASE THE IMPACT OF YOUR GIFT

Increase the value of your gift by having your employer match your gift to the ASCE Foundation.

It is easy to learn whether your employer gives matching gifts. First, donate to the Foundation as you normally would. Second, type your employer's name into the search box that can be found on the "Matching Gifts" page of the Foundation website, www.asce.org/foundation. If your company is listed, click its name and follow the instructions to ensure your donation will be matched.

THE ASCE FOUNDATION LEGACY SOCIETY

We can't say thank you enough to you and other generous supporters who have helped us continue to support civil engineering!

The ASCE Foundation Legacy Society honors individuals who are interested in financially supporting the future of civil engineering with a legacy gift. How do you become a member of the Legacy Society? Simply notify the ASCE Foundation about a future gift of a bequest or life insurance policy or retirement plan assets that you plan to leave to the ASCE Foundation.

We realize that many of you have already remembered the ASCE Foundation in your estate plans and, for many different reasons, have chosen not to reveal your intentions to us. To this visionary group of friends, we'd like to take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude. If you decide to share your plans with us, we would love to thank you in person, and welcome you to the Legacy Society. Of course, we also promise to respect your wishes to remain anonymous, if you so choose.

ASCE HEADQUARTERS BUILDING SEEKS LEED CERTIFICATION

In 2008, the ASCE Foundation pledged to support ASCE's sustainability initiative and committed to the following action:

In the continuing life-cycle maintenance and refurbishment of its headquarters and other facilities owned and leased, utilize sustainable (green) building standards and practices, wherever feasible, to demonstrate and promote sustainable technologies.

To further support the professional strategic issue of sustainability, one of ASCE's top three strategic initiatives in 2010, the ASCE Foundation engaged a consulting group to help determine the feasibility and cost to have the ASCE headquarters building in Reston, Va., meet the U.S. Green Building Council's Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) voluntary rating standards and obtain certification.

For many years, ASCE and the ASCE Foundation have been working outside of LEED to enhance sustainable practices. These practices include, but are not limited to, a bike rack installed many years ago, a telecommuting policy, use of green cleaning materials, an active recycling program, energy savings through lighting choices and an energy management system to manage HVAC usage. ASCE and the ASCE Foundation intend to continue these and other practices to advance the Triple Bottom Line approach to sustainability (economic growth, social progress and environmental stewardship).
