MEMBERSHIP

Total YMG Membership	980 (in Golden Gate Branch, per SF Section)
Number of Active Members	20-30

GENERAL MEETING STRUCTURE:

In order to accommodate officers living in different parts of the Bay Area, our monthly officer meetings alternated between the CH2MHILL office in Oakland and the Kleinfelder office in San Jose.

MOST SUCCESSFUL MEETING:

Transbay Transit Center Presentation

GROUP ACTIVITIES:

YMF Spring Social, A's vs. Giants- Battle of the Bay Baseball Game, Bay Bridge Tour, Rafting Trip, Oktoberfest

IMPROVEMENTS FOR NEXT YEAR:

The most critical improvements are event planning and event publicity.

TECHNOLOGY:

SF YMF utilizes emails, newsletters, web postings, and Facebook updates to keep members informed. A membership database is maintained by the SF YMF webmaster and updated every 3 months or so.

FUNDING INFORMATION:

The majority of our funding comes from the Golden Gate Branch and the PE Review Courses we put on twice per year.

NEW MEMBER RECRUITMENT:

YMF actively recruited new members through the student ASCE chapters and social events.

SECTION/BRANCH INTERACTION:

SF YMF interacts with the various Branches and Section by hosting joint events, typically dinner meetings with a technical presentation included.

STUDENT INTERACTION:

SF YMF conducts both interview and resume workshops at colleges around the Bay Area, including: UC Berkeley, San Jose State and San Francisco State. In addition, the San Francisco group holds workshops to discuss "What to Expect After College" on occasion. SF YMF also typically sponsors the social event after the ASCE Mid-Pac Conference..

SF YMF has invited student members to monthly officer meetings in an effort to improve interaction.
