QUALIFICATIONS, EXPECTATIONS, AND TRAINING OF SOCIETY DIRECTORS

This document is intended to provide guidance to ASCE members seeking to become a Society Director. It describes the required qualifications for this position, expected time commitments, expected financial resources, and the training required. An abbreviated outline of the nomination process, including a list of the documents that must be submitted by each Candidate, is also provided.

A prospective Society Director should visit the ASCE website to review the Society's governing documents, Code of Ethics and Qualifications, Expectations, and Training of Society Directors. After careful study of these resources, a Candidate should be prepared to offer an informed commitment to the qualifications, expectations and training requirements herein described.

It is also expected that Society Directors have the appropriate support from both their family and employer. As the time commitment in this role is great, it is essential that those who have demands or expectations on the Society Director's time be fully aware of, and agreeable to, the commitment being made.

Each nominating committee, potential candidate, and anyone soliciting potential candidates should become familiar with these qualifications, expectations, and training requirements.

I. Qualifications.

Society Directors include Geographic and Technical Region Directors and At-Large Directors.

- A. Geographic Region Directors. Candidates for the office of Geographic Region Director shall be voting Society members in Good Standing, shall have an Address of Record within the Region from which they are being elected, and shall have served as a Geographic Region Governor. After serving one (1) full term, Geographic Region Directors shall be ineligible for re-election to the office of Society Director.
- B. Technical Region Directors. Candidates for the office of Technical Region Director shall be voting Society members in Good Standing and shall have served on an Institute Board of Governors. Directors of the American Society of Civil Engineers must possess many traits and abilities beyond those specified by the Bylaws and Rules of Policy and Procedure. The most noteworthy trait an ASCE Society Director should possess is that of a skilled communicator, as public speaking is a requirement of the position. The Society Director must be a conduit between the Board of Direction and the Regions, committees, local units, and external organizations.

Additionally, a Society Director is to be a spokesperson for the profession at the local level. The Society Director should also be able to competently participate in the planning and policy setting duties of the Board, as well as be able to understand and address the Society's goals. It is essential the Society Director be able to work with ASCE staff and volunteers to accomplish the stated goals of the Society. They must be able to fulfill these functions well, and at the same time always display the highest degree of professional integrity to benefit the civil engineering profession and ASCE.

II. Election Process for Society Director.

- A. Declaration of Intent. Candidates for the office of elected Director shall declare their intent to pursue office not later than December 1. The Letter of Intent shall confirm the Candidate has reviewed the Qualifications, Expectations, and Training of Society Directors posted on the Society's website, understands the financial and personal commitment required, and intends to comply with the responsibilities for service as a Society Director. The Letter of Intent shall be submitted with the Election Materials as follows:

- C. Vision Statement. Candidates for the office of Society Director shall submit a Vision Statement not to exceed six hundred (600) words. The Vision Statement details the Candidate's vision for the Society and plans for activities during their term in office. No discussion of any other Candidate is permitted in the Vision Statement. The Vision Statement shall be submitted (in Word format) with the Letter of Intent).
- D. Photograph. Candidates for the office of Society Director shall submit a high-resolution color photograph of the head and shoulders only, in a professional setting, suitable for publication. The photograph shall be submitted (in jpg or gif format) with the Letter of Intent.
- E. Region Nominating Committee. Each Region Nominating Committee that has a vacancy shall select up to two (2) Official Nominees for Society Director. The Chair of the Region Nominating Committee shall submit the name(s) of the Official Nominee(s) to the Society Secretary not later than March 1 for inclusion on the election ballot. The Region Nominating Committee shall not convene to select Official Nominees until after the December 1 declaration deadline.

III. At-Large Director.

- A. Process. Using Board-approved criteria, Candidates for At-Large Director shall be nominated by a Standing Board Committee, Society Committee, Executive Committee constituent committee, Industry Leaders Council or Younger Member Council not later than May 31. - C. Appointment. The name of the At-Large Director Nominee will be presented to the Board of Direction for approval and appointment at its summer meeting.

IV. Expectations.

In addition to carrying out any specific assignments given by the Board and/or the President, Society Directors must make a commitment of both time and financial resources.

- A. Time. The approximate annual time expected from each Society Director at meetings is shown below. In addition to the meeting days, a Society Director should be willing to spend additional time in preparation for and travel to meetings. Many of these days will be over weekends, but weekdays will also be required. A Society Director must be able to attend all Board and applicable committee meetings to be effective and to provide adequate representation. The days shown below are only an estimate and should not be considered absolute.

Out-of-pocket expenses will vary for each Society Director based on the amount of travel they undertake during their term in office. Candidates should talk with the incumbent Society Director for an estimate of their personal expenses.

There is also an expectation that each Society Director and Board member will support the ASCE Foundation financially each year, at a level of their choosing. The ASCE Foundation Board strives for participation from 100% of the Society's Board of Direction members. The ASCE Foundation Board will keep the amount of all financial contributions confidential.

ARTICLE 2. MEMBERSHIP

2.0 Definitions.

2.0.1 Accredited Engineering Programs. ABET (previously known as the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology), through the Engineering Accreditation Commission (EAC) or the Engineering Technology Accreditation Commission (ETAC) is the accreditation body for Engineering and Engineering Technology Programs offered by colleges and universities in the United States. Accreditation may be granted for programs offering degrees at the Associate, Baccalaureate, or Masters level. A college or university who has at least one (1) degree at any of the levels accredited or actively seeking accreditation shall be considered ABET accredited for the purpose of determining membership qualifications.

2.0.1.1 Substantially Equivalent. Programs accredited by non-US countries utilizing criteria recognized by the Engineering Accreditation Commission (EAC) or Engineering Technology Accreditation Commission (ETAC) of ABET as comparable and whose graduates are judged acceptable for entry into the practice of engineering at the professional level.

2.0.2 Licensure. A citizen of the United States, if working in the United States, must be licensed in the United States as an engineer or surveyor to fulfill the licensure requirements for any membership grade. Licensure in other countries equivalent to licensure in the United States and its territories shall satisfy the licensure requirements for any membership grade.

2.0.3 Responsible Charge of Work.

2.0.3.1 Member. In the field, the applicant must have had the direction of work, the successful accomplishment of which rested upon the applicant, where the applicant had to decide questions of methods of execution and suitability of materials, without relying upon advice or instructions from the applicant's superior, and of supplying deficiencies in plans or correcting errors in design without referring them to higher authority for approval, except in cases where such approval is a mere matter of form. In the office, the applicant must have had to undertake investigations to carry out important assignments demanding resourcefulness and originality; or to make plans, write specifications and direct the drafting and computations for designs of engineering work, with only rough sketches, general information and field measurements for reference and guidance. In engineering teaching, the applicant must have taught in an engineering school of recognized standing and must have had at least a grade of assistant professor or its equivalent.

2.0.3.2 Fellow. The standard required for advancement to the grade of Fellow is broad responsibility for engineering work of major importance. The duties and responsibilities of the applicant must have been definitely above those required for the grade of Member. Serving in appointed titled positions is not construed as the sole qualifying criterion. It must be demonstrated that the applicant was the primary (or one of the primary) individual(s) who had responsibility for engineering work and its compliance with applicable codes, standards and specifications, or for the integrity of the plans, documents and reports prepared. For projects requiring a team effort by a group of professionals, engineering work of major importance may include the coordination of several engineering or related disciplines, under the direct or indirect supervision of the applicant. In academia, it shall be demonstrated that the applicant has functioned as a leader, guide or directing head of academic programs. In engineering teaching, the applicant must have taught in an engineering school of recognized standing and must have had at least a grade of associate professor or its equivalent. In the research field, it shall be demonstrated that the applicant has been the principal investigator or has made other major leadership contributions, such as serving on national or international committees outside the individual's institution.

2.0.4 Related Engineering or Engineering Technology Program. Related Engineering or Engineering Technology Programs are defined as any program in a major engineering or engineering technology discipline that is also accredited by ABET.

2.1.3 Review of Application. Society staff shall process applications of applicants for admission to membership in the Society who have met the grade requirements specified in the Rules.

2.1.3.1 Non-Standard Applications. Applications that do not exactly meet the stated criteria for admission or advancement to a particular grade of Society membership shall be referred to the Membership Application Review Committee.

2.1.3.2 Waiver of Criteria. Applicants who do not specifically meet the criteria for a grade of Society membership may request a waiver from the Membership Application Review Committee. The Membership Application Review Committee maintains guidelines for the waiver of criteria to ensure a measure of consistency in waiver review. Staff may admit an applicant to a reduced grade of membership pending review by the Membership Application Review Committee of advancement to a higher grade.

The Membership Application Review Committee shall have the authority, by majority vote, to grant a waiver for admission or advancement. A waiver of criteria for advancement to Fellow shall only be considered in the case of a Member with acknowledged eminence in some branch of engineering or in the arts and sciences related thereto. In addition, the nomination package shall include a one (1) page summary biography, distinct from the citation, a resume or CV not to exceed fifteen (15) pages and a list of six (6) individuals who will provide a letter of recommendation for the nominee. The letters of recommendation shall not exceed two (2) pages each and shall be sent electronically, directly to the Society Awards Committee. The Society Awards Committee places high value on the recommendation letters, including source, relationship to the nominee and originality. The total page count of a complete nomination package shall not exceed thirty (30) pages.

The total number of Distinguished Members elected in any year shall not exceed twelve (12). Members of the Board of Direction (hereinafter the "Board") are ineligible for election to Distinguished Membership during their terms of active membership on the Board, as election of Distinguished Members shall be by vote of the Board. Declared Candidates or Nominees for the office of President-elect are ineligible for election to Distinguished Member during the election cycle. The Society Awards Committee may make use of a committee of additional experts to be formed and comprised by vote of the Society Awards Committee for the purpose of gaining additional input on nomination. Names of candidates voted on but not elected may be resubmitted by the Society Awards Committee to the Board for two (2) years, after which their names will be dropped from the roster of candidates unless re-nominated.

2.1.5.3 Election. At least eighty percent (80%) of the members of the Board must be present for a vote on Distinguished Membership. Voting is by secret ballot, without discussion. The affirmative vote by at least eighty percent (80%) of those voting is required to elect, and three (3) negative ballots shall exclude.

2.1.5.4 Notification. A person elected to Distinguished Membership in the Society shall be notified promptly thereof by the Secretary. The election shall be canceled if an acceptance is not received within sixty (60) days after the distribution of such notice.

2.1.5.5 Presentation. Awards of Distinguished Membership shall be made during suitable ceremonies at such time and place prescribed by the Executive Committee.

2.1.6 Confidentiality of Application. Application and member information shall be considered confidential and shall not be released or provided for other than Society business unless the release of such information is 1) authorized by the Board, OR 2) authorized by the individual Society member, OR 3) required by law.

2.2 Reciprocal Membership Privileges. The Society may enter into reciprocal membership agreements with other professional societies. Such agreement shall not offer grade reciprocity in any grade higher than Member.

The Society provides to its fellow Founder Societies, consisting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME), the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers (IEEE), the American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical and Petroleum Engineers, Inc. (AIME), and the American Institute of Chemical Engineers (AIChE), the privilege of reciprocal membership in the Society for their members.

2.2.2 Reciprocal Privileges for Chief Staff Executive. The Membership Application Review Committee shall have the authority to admit to appropriate membership grade in the Society, upon presentation of an application but waiving fees and dues and without other established admission procedures, the chief staff executive of any engineering organization approved for this purpose by the Board, and provided such organization affords the Society reciprocal membership privileges. Waiver of dues for persons so elected shall terminate upon termination of their service as the chief staff executive of their engineering organization, or when the Board votes to no longer provide reciprocal membership privileges to their engineering organization.

2.2.3 International Engineering Societies with Reciprocal Membership. The Society may provide to international engineering societies the privilege of reciprocal membership in the Society for their members.

2.3 Membership Requirement for Editorial Positions. Editors-in-chief, editors, co-editors and associate editors of Society journals shall be members in good standing of ASCE or an Institute. Exceptions to this requirement shall only be made by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE 3. SEPARATIONS FROM MEMBERSHIP, DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

3.0 Procedures for Professional Conduct Cases. Professional conduct proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with procedures established by the Committee on Professional Conduct.

3.0.1 Initiation. The Executive Committee shall consider proceedings for the discipline of any Society member (a) upon the recommendation of the Committee on Professional Conduct, or (b) upon the written request of one hundred (100) or more voting Society members in good standing.

3.0.1.1 Reference to Committee on Professional Conduct. Any complaint or other allegation of misconduct or any information indicating possible misconduct shall be referred promptly to the Committee on Professional Conduct by the Secretary of the Society.

3.0.1.1.1 Origin of Complaint. Complaints may be put forward by both ASCE members and non-members. Such complaints shall be submitted to the Society Secretary or his designee in writing in such form as deemed acceptable by the Committee on Professional Conduct.

3.0.1.2 Jurisdiction. The Committee on Professional Conduct shall act with reasonable expediency to determine whether or not the charges or evidence constitutes a proper case for its jurisdiction.

If the Committee on Professional Conduct determines that the case is not a proper one for its consideration, the Secretary shall be instructed to so advise any complainants or petitioners who may have filed charges.

3.0.1.3 Litigation. It is the general policy of the Committee on Professional Conduct not to take action in professional conduct matters while a court case is underway.

3.0.2 Committee on Professional Conduct Investigation. If the Committee on Professional Conduct determines the complaint is a proper case for its consideration, the Committee shall conduct such investigation, as it shall deem necessary or appropriate, to ascertain the facts.

3.0.2.1 Purpose. The primary purpose of the Committee on Professional Conduct is to promote compliance with the ASCE Code of Ethics.

3.0.2.2 Governing Precepts. The Committee on Professional Conduct shall exercise every means possible to resolve ethical questions and charges of professional misconduct through measures other than reference to the Executive Committee. Such measures may include, without limitation, mediation, discussion, letters of concern, or other measures. Cases shall be referred to the Executive Committee when it is the conclusion of the Committee on Professional Conduct that consideration of disciplinary action is the only appropriate course.

3.0.2.3 Confidentiality. Because of the delicate nature of matters coming before the Committee on Professional Conduct, its proceedings are considered to be confidential, to be discussed outside the meeting only with members of the Committee, staff members privy to Committee proceedings, and such other persons deemed by the Committee as having a need to know. Cases should not be discussed with members of the Board prior to formal presentation, as the members may later be required to sit in judgment upon such cases.

3.0.3 Committee on Professional Conduct Recommendation. The Committee on Professional Conduct shall pursue its investigation until it reaches a firm recommendation as to the disposition of the case as follows:

3.0.3.1 Dismissal. When, in the opinion of the Committee on Professional Conduct, the facts do not support the charges or where evidence is inconclusive, the Committee on Professional Conduct may determine that the case be dropped. The principals shall be duly notified when a case is dropped.

3.0.3.2 Referral for Hearing. Where the evidence, in the opinion of the Committee on Professional Conduct, warrants formal disciplinary action, other than expulsion, the Committee on Professional Conduct shall refer the case to the Executive Committee for a hearing. Where the Committee on Professional Conduct deems expulsion as the appropriate form of disciplinary action, the Committee on Professional Conduct shall refer the case to the Board for a hearing.

3.0.3.3 Mandatory Referral to Executive Committee. Where, upon the written request of one hundred (100) or more eligible voting Society members in good standing, the case is required to be considered by the Executive Committee, the Committee on Professional Conduct shall upon completion of its investigation, notify the Executive Committee that the Committee on Professional Conduct has conducted its investigation and is prepared to present evidence on a case for which referral to the Executive Committee is mandatory.

3.1 Procedures for Hearing by the Executive Committee. The following rules shall govern the conduct of hearings by the Executive Committee.

3.1.1 Notice of Hearing. Prior to the Executive Committee considering any case referred by the Committee on Professional Conduct, the Society member shall be advised of the charges, shall be notified of the time and place of the meeting of the Executive Committee at which the case is to be considered, and shall be invited to present at such time a defense either in person or in writing.

3.1.2 Attendance. Attendance at hearings shall be limited to members of the Executive Committee; members of the Committee on Professional Conduct currently in office or in office when the case originated; the Secretary and designated staff; the complainants; the person or persons against whom charges have been filed; witnesses; and legal counsel. The person or persons against whom charges have been filed may be accompanied by legal counsel and may present witnesses and shall have the right to be present throughout the hearing until the presentation of evidence and closing statements, if any, have been concluded.

3.1.3 Agenda. The agenda for the hearing shall include without limitation:

—Presentation of evidence by Chair or other member of the Committee on Professional Conduct.

—Presentation of defense.

—Opportunity for members of the Executive Committee to question the defense, any witness, or any member of the Committee on Professional Conduct about the charges.

—Deliberation and action of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee then goes into Executive Session to determine what disciplinary action, if any, shall be taken.

3.1.4 Evidence. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply, but the Executive Committee need not accept any evidence which, in its opinion, is irrelevant or immaterial to the issues presented by the statement of charges and answers thereto.

3.1.5 Failure to Present Defense. In the event no defense is presented either in person or in writing by the defendant, the Executive Committee may proceed with the hearing of the case based on the statement of charges and other evidence presented at the hearing.

3.1.6 Confidentiality. All proceedings shall be confidential, but a transcript or other recording of the proceedings may be taken at the discretion of the Secretary and retained in the office of the Secretary.

3.2 Procedures for Hearing by the Board of Direction. Hearings by the Board shall follow the same rules as set forth in “Procedures for Hearing by the Executive Committee”, substituting “Board” for “Executive Committee.”

3.3 Disciplinary Action. Disciplinary action against a member shall be taken only after the member has been advised of the charges and given opportunity to present a defense in person or in writing. These conditions having been satisfied, the Executive Committee or Board, as the case may be, may take action in a duly constituted meeting. All voting shall be by secret ballot. A finding that a charge against a member has been sustained shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the Executive Committee/Board members present.

3.3.1 Action by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may take such disciplinary action, other than expulsion from membership in the Society, as it may deem appropriate. The right of expulsion from membership in the Society is reserved to the Board and, if the Executive Committee votes to expel a Society member, the matter shall be referred to the Board for final disposition.

3.3.2 Action by the Board of Direction. The Board may take such disciplinary action as it may deem appropriate. The affirmative vote of a majority of Board members voting shall be required for all disciplinary actions except for expulsion, which shall require the affirmative vote of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the Board voting with a minimum of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Board present.

3.3.3 Expulsion. Any member of the Society may be expelled as disciplinary action for conduct which in the opinion of the Board is improper and prejudicial to the best interests of the Society. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the consideration of disciplinary action against a member. The affirmative vote of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the Board present shall be required for expulsion.

3.4 Consent Procedure. Where evidence of a violation of the Constitution, Bylaws or Code of Ethics exists, the Committee on Professional Conduct may, with the consent of the Society member charged with the violation, submit to the Executive Committee in writing a statement of the facts of the case and a recommended disciplinary action other than expulsion.

3.4.1 Admission/Waiver. In consenting to the submission of the case to the Executive Committee upon the statement of facts, the Society member is deemed for the purposes of the submission to have admitted the facts as set forth in the statement and to have agreed to accept the recommended disciplinary action. The Society member has also waived the right to be present or to present a defense to the charges at the Executive Committee meeting at which the statement of facts and recommended disciplinary action are considered. The Society member's consent to the submission shall be evidenced by a letter, telegram, or other written communication.

3.4.2 Executive Committee Consideration. The affirmative vote of a majority of the Executive Committee members present shall be required to take any such recommended disciplinary action. If the Executive Committee does not approve the recommended disciplinary action by such vote, the Society member shall be entitled to present a defense to the charges at a subsequent hearing. The statement of facts submitted with the consent of the Society member shall not constitute evidence at the subsequent hearing at which the case is to be considered.

3.5 Execution of Disciplinary Action.

3.5.1 Expulsion. The Secretary, on behalf of the Board, shall provide written notice to the Society member who has been expelled from membership advising the member of the decision and confirming the effective date of the expulsion.

3.5.2 Suspension. The Secretary, on behalf of the Executive Committee or Board, as the case may be, shall provide written notice to a Society member who has been suspended advising the member of the effective date and term of the suspension.

3.5.3 Admonition. A Society member who is to be admonished shall be sent a letter appropriate to the circumstances of the case. Such a letter shall be drafted by the Secretary for approval by legal counsel. It shall be transmitted for the Executive Committee by the Secretary.

3.6 Publication.

3.6.1 Disciplinary Actions.

3.6.1.1 Society Publications. At the discretion of the Executive Committee and/or the Board, notice of any disciplinary action may be published in an Official Society Publication. Such notice may include a statement of the circumstances surrounding such disciplinary action. The name of the Society member subjected to disciplinary action may be mentioned in such notice, provided the disciplined individual has first been notified of the disciplinary action and provided such notice is limited to (a) a factual statement of the action of the Executive Committee or Board and (b) only such facts surrounding the disciplinary action as are set forth in a publicly available judicial or administrative petition, decision, or related document.

3.6.1.2 Notification to Other Organizations. The Executive Committee and/or Board shall have discretionary authority to direct notification of any expulsion, suspension or other disciplinary action to any other organization of engineers to which the disciplined member of the Society may belong or may have made application for membership, and to any Board of Registration which shall have licensed the disciplined Society member to practice engineering or to which the member may have made an application for such a license. Any such notification may include a statement of the circumstances surrounding such disciplinary action.

Requests for Board Action shall be received by the Secretary not later than thirty (30) days prior to the Board meeting at which action is requested.

5.4.3 Public Policy Documents. Public Policy Documents articulate Society positions to members and the public. The creation of Public Policy Documents lies with Organizational Entities with expertise in the subject area of the Public Policy Document. The Society has two (2) types of Public Policy Documents: Policy Statements and Resolutions. All Public Policy Documents include a chronology of approval dates by the originating committee(s), the Public Policy and Practice Committee, and the Board.

5.4.3.1 Policy Statements. A Policy Statement is a broad overview of policy on a topic of continuing concern to the civil engineering profession. A Policy Statement shall include a clear definition of the policy, an analysis of the issue that led to the development of the Policy Statement, and a rationale for involvement of the Society in the issue.

5.4.3.2 Policy Resolutions. A Resolution is a short term or interim position of the Society that is intended to respond to an immediate concern. A Policy Resolution shall include one (1) or more clauses that outline the details of the issue and the reasons for concern of the Society, and one (1) or more “resolved” clauses that state the specific position of the Society on the topic.

5.4.4 Distribution of Agendas. Agendas for Board meetings shall be distributed by a means or combination of means that ensures each Board and Region Board member shall receive the document in a timely manner and in compliance with notice requirements. Agendas for Executive Committee meetings shall be distributed by a means or combination of means that ensures each Executive Committee member shall receive the document in a timely manner and in compliance with notice requirements.

5.4.5 Urgency. Nothing in the Rules shall be construed as preventing any committee, any officially appointed person or Organizational Entity, or any member of the Board from formally presenting any matter to the Board or Executive Committee for action without compliance with the procedures set forth, provided: the group or individual requesting the action maintains that the matter involves such urgency as to have made compliance with the rules of procedure impossible or impracticable; a brief written statement justifying the urgent nature of the matter shall be submitted to the Board or Executive Committee; and the matter shall not receive immediate action by the Board or Executive Committee unless a decision is made by the Board or Executive Committee that the matter is of such urgency as to require immediate action. A decision of urgency requires three-fourths (3/4) vote of those present and voting.

5.4.6 Fundraising. Society representatives soliciting funds for Society-level activities on behalf of the Society should coordinate such activities with the ASCE Foundation.

5.5 Financial Management.

5.5.1 Financial Philosophy. The Society strives to accomplish its mission, as stated in its Strategic Plan, while meeting the financial goals necessary to do so. The Society shall assess its resources and make spending decisions based on available funds, taking into consideration the maintenance of a prudent level of corporate infrastructure and reserves.

The Society derives revenues from membership dues and sales of products and services, including publications, continuing education programs, conferences, advertising, and royalties. It is important that the Society develop a balance of revenue sources and seek out new ones, so as not to become too dependent on individual sources. In order to provide funding for programs to meet the Society's goals and objectives, products and services shall be priced, where possible, so their revenue exceeds expense. At times, in meeting the Society's goals and objectives, the Society may produce products and services where the expenses exceed revenues. It is the policy of the Board that members of the Society be given the best available pricing for products and services.

The Society and its affiliates shall maintain an adequate system of internal accounting controls to ensure that accounting transactions are recorded and reported accurately. The accounting policies, procedures and controls shall be documented in an accounting manual.

5.5.2 Cash and Investments. The Society maintains funds for operations and long-term investment. Excess cash shall be invested in short-term, low-risk liquid investments. From time-to-time maturities of operating fund fixed-income securities may be extended up to intermediate-term based on market conditions and the amount of funds available for investment. Earnings from operating funds shall be used as a revenue source to fund operating activities. Long-term investments (funds with five (5) year or greater time horizon) shall be invested with the assistance of an investment management firm and in accordance with an Investment Policy approved by the Board.

5.5.2.1 Investment Policy. The Society's Investment Policy shall specify asset allocations appropriate for a professional society and the type of funds within the Society (e.g., short-term investment fund, long-term investment fund, prizes and awards fund). The Investment Policy shall include the investment objectives, spending parameters and asset allocations for each fund, portfolio return objectives, diversification and rebalancing policies, and reporting requirements. The Investment Policy shall be developed for Board approval by the Program and Finance Committee in consultation with the investment management firm.

5.5.3 Restricted Net Assets. Certain of the Society's assets and net assets are restricted as to use by donors and cannot be used for general operations of the Society. Restricted money shall be held in separate funds and accounted for separately.

5.5.4 Reserves Policy. The Society shall hold Reserves to maintain financial stability in the event of unforeseen catastrophic events, economic downturns, uninsured claims, or to provide money for important new initiatives. The Board shall establish a reserve target stated as the percentage of Reserves to annual consolidated operating expenses. Should annual reserve percentages begin to consistently decline or drop below the target, the Treasurer, Chief Financial Officer, and the Program and Finance Committee shall present a plan to the Board to stem the decline. Should Reserves grow beyond the Reserve target, the Treasurer, Chief Financial Officer and the Program and Finance Committee shall assess future Reserve needs and uses for the Reserve growth.

5.5.4.1 Definition. Reserves are the consolidated Expendable Net Assets of the Society and its Institutes and Affiliates. Expendable Net Assets are defined as total consolidated unrestricted net assets less the book value of property and equipment reduced by outstanding debt secured by property and equipment.

5.5.4.2 Institute Reserves. Society Institutes are each authorized to have Expendable Net Asset balances (Reserves) that are designated for their use. Their target of Reserves to Institute annual expenses is the same as the overall target for the Society.

5.5.5 Annual Operating Budget. The Society shall budget its programs and activities consistent with the Strategic Plan. The Strategic Plan consists of the purpose, vision, mission, and goals; the approved strategies to address the Board designated top priority focus strategies. KPIs are statements that encapsulate the Society's ongoing delivery of value to members, as seen from the member's point of view, giving a finer breakdown of effort than provided by the goals. The Society will strive to coordinate the strategic planning and budget processes so that decisions for strategic budgets and the budgeting of annual operating plans to deliver the KPIs can be made on a reasonable and timely basis.

The Program and Finance Committee is charged with the responsibility of preparing the Society's annual Operating Budget using Society staff and committees as resources. The Operating Budget shall be presented to the Board for their review and approval prior to the beginning of the Fiscal Year. Institute budgets, which are prepared by the individual Institutes, shall be presented to the Board for approval as well.

Each year, the ongoing activities of the Society shall be evaluated by Society staff leadership, operational committees, Program and Finance Committee, and the Board from an operational and financial standpoint to determine whether they should be continued and at what level of expenditure. Proposed new activities shall be evaluated by Society staff leadership, Program and Finance Committee, and the Board to determine their appropriateness from a strategic, operational, and financial standpoint. Written information about proposed new activities shall be presented with the request, including a complete description of the activity, impact on members, benefit to the Society, budget data, coordination with the Strategic Plan, and methodology for evaluating success.

Operating Budgets are guides prepared in advance of the Fiscal Year and therefore are not always a precise plan for revenue and expense. Variances occur regularly for individual budget line items due to the passage of time and evolution of plans. The Executive Director has the responsibility to manage the execution of the Operating Budget within a reasonable framework of variances and within the budgeted total change in net assets. The Program and Finance Committee will receive a monthly budget to actual comparison with a quarterly comparison provided to the Board that includes descriptions of and reasons for significant variances.

5.5.6 Annual Capital Budget. The Program and Finance Committee is charged with the responsibility of preparing the Society's annual Capital Budget using Society staff as its resource. The Capital Budget shall be presented to the Board for their review and approval.

The Capital Budget is for the purchase of assets that have an expected useful life in excess of one (1) year and a cost in excess of the Society's capitalization limit. These assets are depreciated (charged as expense) over their estimated useful lives.

5.5.7 Unbudgeted Expenditures. During the budget year, requests may arise for additional funding for existing activities or for funding of a proposed activity. The Executive Committee shall have the authority, without prior Board of Direction approval, to approve additional or new expenditures of up to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for individual activities or purchases. The annual limit of additional and new expenditures approved as above is one percent (1%) of the annual expense budget. The Executive Committee shall report these additional expenditure authorizations to the Board of Direction at its next scheduled meeting.

All budget additions in excess of one-hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) shall be submitted to the Program and Finance Committee for review and recommendation before the request is presented to the Board of Direction for approval.

5.5.8 Fundraising. Society representatives soliciting funds for Society-level activities on behalf of the Society shall coordinate such activities with the American Society of Civil Engineers Foundation.

10.0.2 Amicus Curiae Briefs. The Society may participate in an Amicus Curiae (friend of the court) Brief upon recommendation of the Executive Director and approval of the Executive Committee. When considering participation in an Amicus Curiae Brief, the Society shall consider the following criteria: the case must be of major importance to the general area of civil engineering or to the Society, the Society's participation in the brief must not pose an undue financial burden on the Society, and the anticipated benefits of filing the brief must be weighed against the costs. Consideration should be given to the likely attorneys' fees, printing costs, and other expenses associated with filing the brief, as well as financial participation of other societies. The Society should consult with other professional societies most directly affected by the case.

10.1 Address Records. The Address Records held by the Society are intended for use solely for Society business. The Executive Director is authorized to utilize Address Records when, in the Executive Director's judgment, the interests of the Society will be served, or when the Executive Committee authorizes a special use.

10.1.1 Provision of Address Records to Organizational Entities. Organizational Entities shall have the right to periodically receive membership lists from current address records pertaining to the Organizational Entity. The use of such lists shall be for Society business and shall not include selling, giving, or bartering the list.

10.2 Society Awards. A Society Award is an award that a) serves to advance the science and profession of engineering in support of the Society's Purpose and Objective AND b) for which recipients shall be approved by either the Board or Executive Committee AND c) for which the Society has all supporting funds and rights of administration.

10.2.1 Funding of Society Awards. A Society Award may be established by funds received from individuals, business, industrial organizations, or by a Society grant (hereinafter "funding champion"). Such funds shall carry an obligation on the part of the donor to support the Purposes and Objective of the Society without advocating or seeming to advocate commercial interests.

10.2.1.1 Direct Costs of Society Awards. Direct costs are borne by the individual award funds. Direct costs of an award are the initial and ongoing costs of the plaque or other symbol of the Society Award, honorarium, shipping the award to the award site or to the recipient if an in-person presentation is not possible, printing of the recipients booklet, printing of the nomination booklet, production of the award ceremonies, and the expense paid to the investment advisor who manages the portfolio of endowed awards.

10.2.1.2 Administrative Charges of Society Awards Program. In addition to awards program direct costs, the Society incurs labor and other program management expenses, including those for soliciting nominations, reviewing nominations for eligibility, coordinating selection of the recipients, collecting recipient photos and biographical data, writing of press releases, and organizing luncheons and receptions for the recipients. To cover those expenses, the Society charges each Society Award an annual general and administrative fee of two percent (2.00%) of the Society Award's fund balance held in the Prizes and Awards investment portfolio as of the beginning of each fiscal year. This fee is waived for Society Awards that have spendable balances below $30,000 at the beginning of each fiscal year.

10.2.1.3 Endowment of Society Awards. There are minimum endowments required for Society Awards, whether named or unnamed. An additional sum is required at start-up to cover direct costs associated with the award. The Society Awards Committee shall ensure funds are self-sustaining. The cost to endow an award shall increase annually by one thousand dollars ($1,000) for a named award and five hundred dollars ($500) for an unnamed award.

10.2.1.4 Minimum Funding to Confer Award. Awards may only be conferred if 1) the principal balance meets the required endowment and 2) the Award has sufficient additional funds to pay all direct costs. A waiver may be provided by the Society Awards Committee if special circumstances apply, but no honoraria shall be provided. No honoraria shall be given if doing so would reduce the funds available for direct costs to below one thousand dollars ($1,000).

For all events, the approving Society entity shall request a “Hold Harmless” agreement as a pre-condition to ASCE involvement.

When determining approval or disapproval of a request for sponsorship, consideration shall be given to the nature and reputation of the requesting organization, applicability of the material to the civil engineering professions, possible conflicts with other Society events, and the quality of program and presenters.

10.4 Provision of Society Member Benefits Through Affinity Programs. The Society may offer Affinity Programs to the members. HISTORICAL LIST OF DISTINGUISHED AND HONORARY MEMBERS

Beginning in 1853

In 2007, the Society changed the title, Honorary Member, to more clearly convey the eminence of ASCE's most prestigious honorees. Beginning in 2008, the title of the Society elite membership grade became known as Distinguished Member. Honorary Members elected before 2008 had the opportunity to accept this new title; the list that follows reflects their preference.

ADVANCING THE PROFESSION

ASCE's programs to advance the civil engineering professional fall under the oversight of the Committee on Professional Advancement (CPA), a standing Society committee. CPA's vision is that civil engineers are valued as uniquely capable leaders with the resources to advance optimal solutions to evolving societal changes. CPA works with and through its constituent committees to achieve that vision. For information about the work of these groups, contact the staff below:

The Committee on Professional Advancement, its constituent committees, and supporting staff work collaboratively to position civil engineers to lead, mentor, and serve society by promoting attainment of the necessary knowledge, skills, and attitudes, developing career tools and resources, and cultivating opportunities. They are key contributors to ASCE's programs in the following areas. For more information contact professional@asce.org.

CAREER RESOURCES

ASCE provides tools and resources to aid civil engineers in career planning and advancement at all stages of their careers and to equip civil engineers to attain their career goals. Resources such as ASCE's Career Paths in Civil Engineering, and Guidelines for Engineering Grades, provide valuable career guidance and are being updated and expanded, many in interactive digital form.

LEADER DEVELOPMENT

ASCE's leadership tools and resources empower civil engineers to develop their leadership and interpersonal skills more purposefully, identify knowledge and skill gaps, and navigate available opportunities. Programs include leader skills development sessions at ASCE conferences. For more information on ASCE's leader development programs, visit www.asce.org/leadership-training/.

Each year, ASCE acknowledges excellence in leadership and management through many Society and committee awards. These include the Civil Engineering Entrepreneur of the Year Award, Government Civil Engineer of the Year Award, Edmund Friedman Professional Recognition Award, Outstanding Public Official Award, John I. Parcel-Leif J. Sverdrup Civil Engineering Management Award, and Professional Practice Ethics and Leadership Award. For eligibility criteria and nomination instructions for these awards, visit www.asce.org/awards.

ENGINEER TOMORROW

Civil engineers of tomorrow will design, build, and lead in an environment that is more demanding and unpredictable than ever before. Communities rely on civil engineers to preserve their health, safety, and welfare. The engineers of tomorrow will need to continuously learn and gain advanced problem-solving skills, education, and experience to successfully support their communities for years to come.

ASCE's Engineer Tomorrow initiative is focused on ensuring that today's civil engineers gain the necessary knowledge, skills, and experience to sustain the profession in the future. To learn more about this initiative, visit www.asce.org/engineer-tomorrow.

TECHNICAL ADVANCEMENT

The Committee on Technical Advancement (CTA), a standing Society committee, shall oversee and supervise the technical activities of the Society in collaboration with the Technical Region, the Institutes, and the Academies.

CTA consists of nine constituent Committees and Divisions, each representing a unique technical area of civil engineering practice. CTA's constituent Committees and Divisions develop and disseminate information related to their technical area of practice and research via conferences, symposiums, workshops, continuing education programs, and publications. The constituent Committees' and Divisions' affairs are managed by their Executive Committees (EXCOMs), who appoint technical committees and task committees, charged with completing specific assignments. For information about the work of CTA or its specific constituent Committees and Divisions, contact the staff below:

RULES FOR STANDARDS COMMITTEES

The Codes and Standards Committee has overall responsibility for the enforcement and maintenance of the ASCE Rules for Standards Committees approved by the ASCE Board of Direction and ANSI.

In 2024, the Board of Direction approved the revision to the ASCE Rules for Standards Committees to govern the writing and maintenance of standards developed by the Society. All such standards are developed by a consensus standards process managed by the Society's Codes and Standards Committee (CSC). The consensus process includes balloting by a balanced standards committee made up of Society members and nonmembers, and an advertised public comment period. Standards are updated or reaffirmed by the same process at intervals not exceeding five years.

ASCE Rules for Standards Committees

Approved by ASCE Codes and Standards Committee: April 21, 2016

Approved by ASCE Committee on Technical Advancement: April 29, 2016

Approved by ASCE ExCom for the Board of Direction: June 28, 2016

Approved by American National Standards Institute (ANSI): July 20, 2016

Effective Date: October 1, 2016

1. SCOPE

1.1. General

These ASCE Rules (Rules) for Standards Committees (Committees) govern the organization and operation of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) standards committees, standards councils (Councils), the executive committees of Councils or technical divisions (ExComs), and the ASCE Codes and Standards Committee (CSC). The organization and responsibilities of the CSC are defined in ASCE's Rules of Policy and Procedure. For Councils without an executive committee, the term ExCom shall refer to the Council as its voting members. CSC shall interpret matters not covered in these Rules and shall be permitted to publish supplemental policies and procedures.

1.2. Revisions and Updates

Anyone at any time shall be permitted to propose revisions to these Rules in writing to CSC. CSC shall submit its recommended revisions to the ASCE Board of Direction for approval and, when approved, then to the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) for approval.

1.3. Applicability

These Rules shall be in force as of the effective date specified by the ASCE Board of Direction. If a Committee is in the process of conducting a ballot at the time of approval, the revised rules shall be in force on the subsequent Committee ballot. The Committee shall be permitted to request a waiver from both the ExCom and CSC to continue under the previous rules.

2. STANDARDIZATION ACTIVITIES

2.1. General

Standardization activities include, but are not limited, to the following:

- a. Creating a new consensus standard
- b. Reaffirming an existing consensus standard
- c. Revising an existing consensus standard
- d. Reaffirmation or revision interval for an existing standard
- e. Using Stabilized Maintenance for an existing standard
- f. Withdrawing an existing consensus standard
- g. Sunsetting an existing Committee
- h. Developing Memorandums of Understanding (MOU) with other Standard Developing Organizations (SDOs)
- i. Communicating standards activities

2.2. Creating a New Consensus Standard

2.2.1. Requests

Any person, organization, or existing committee shall be permitted to submit to CSC a proposal to establish a new consensus standard. ASCE will undertake activities that are a public benefit, consistent with ASCE's goals, and feasible within the resources available to ASCE.

2.2.2. Proposal Contents

A proposal to create a new consensus standard shall include the following:

- a. A concise statement of the scope of the standard and the system of measurement units to be used in the standard per Section 4.2.6 of these Rules.
- b. The objective of the standard, including whether it is intended for mandatory or non-mandatory use, and if it is intended to become an American National Standard (ANS), an International Standards Organization (ISO) standard, an International Electrotechnical Commission standard (ISO/IEC JTC-1) or any other jurisdictional standard.

- c. The need for and anticipated benefits to the public of the proposed standardization activity.
- d. A rationale for ASCE undertaking the activity.
- e. Rationale for any joint activity with another SDO or other organization.
- f. Potential Committee members (Members) and recommended leadership.
- g. The principal users of the proposed standard.
- h. Documentation of a good faith effort to identify relevant regional, national, or international standards related to the topic area. If existing standards are found, the proposal shall provide a plan to avoid conflicts with the existing standards and to consider any joint activity with the other SDO or organization.
- i. A schedule for producing the standard.
- j. An estimate of the Committee costs and funding sources.

2.2.3. Proposal Review and Acceptance

CSC shall distribute each proposal to all appropriate Institute ExComs, Council ExComs, ASCE Technical Division ExComs, and other ASCE committees for a minimum review period of 30 calendar days. The ExCom(s) shall ballot the proposal and report their findings to CSC. If the ExCom(s) approve(s) the proposal by a simple majority, CSC shall then review all comments and approve, reject or recommend changes to the proposal. If approved by majority vote of the CSC, an ExCom or a Committee shall be charged to develop the standard. If CSC rejects or recommends modifications to the proposal, CSC shall communicate its rationale to the proponent and the ExCom.

2.2.4. Assignment to a Committee and ExCom

CSC shall take one of the following actions if an approved standardization activity does not fit within the scope of an existing Committee:

- a. Change the scope of an existing Committee, with their concurrence, to include the new standardization activity.
- b. Establish a new Committee within an appropriate discipline-specific ExCom with their concurrence.
- c. Recommend other oversight actions as appropriate.

2.2.5. Duplications and Conflicts

Committees shall make every effort to avoid conflicts with other ASCE standards or those of ANSI-accredited SDOs. Any individual, group, or organization concerned that a proposed standardization activity duplicates or conflicts with an existing standard or a candidate standard being developed by an ANSI-accredited SDO shall submit a written statement asserting their concerns to CSC. It shall be CSC's responsibility to initiate and participate in deliberation of the issues within 90 calendar days to resolve assertions of duplication or conflict. The deliberations shall be permitted to take a variety of forms including an in-person meeting, conference call, written correspondence, e-mail, or a combination of forms. If the party or parties raising the issue of duplication or conflict do not enter into deliberations with CSC within 90 calendar days after receipt of notification and it can be demonstrated to CSC that a good faith effort has been made to schedule or otherwise organize the deliberations, then CSC shall render a decision without deliberation. The outcome of the deliberations shall be recorded and retained as part of the records of the standardization activity.

2.2.6. Joint Sponsorship

Committees shall be permitted to be jointly sponsored by ASCE technical divisions, other technical councils of ASCE, ASCE Institutes, and by other organizations. Joint sponsorship shall have an MOU that is approved by CSC and other appropriate ASCE entities. Where the co-sponsor has its own rules and a conflict exists between their rules and these ASCE Rules for Standards Committees, CSC shall approve any necessary deviation from these Rules.

2.2.7. Notification of New Standardization Activity

After CSC approves a new standardization activity, ASCE staff shall notify interested parties of the proposed project. Notification shall include, but not be limited to, the following as applicable:

- a. Notification to ANSI (e.g., Project Identification Notice of Standard (PINS) form).
- b. Publication by ASCE (print and/or electronic media).
- c. Notification to the public (e.g., consumer groups, public interest organizations, engineering societies, and technical organizations).

2.3. Reaffirming an Existing Standard

2.3.1. General

Reaffirmations of standards shall have no substantive change to an existing standard. Any substantive changes shall require processing as a revision in accordance with Section 2.4.

2.3.2. Timing

The ExCom or responsible entity for an ASCE standard shall establish a schedule providing for review and needed reaffirmation at intervals not to exceed five years. Extensions beyond this five year period shall require the approval of both the appropriate ExCom and CSC.

2.3.3. Minimum Requirements

Reaffirmation of an existing standard shall include the following:

- a. A Committee letter ballot to reaffirm the standard processed in accordance with Section 5.
- b. Non-substantive changes summarized in a Foreword.
- c. CSC staff notification to ASCE Publications that the current standard shall be noted as reaffirmed.

2.4. Revising an Existing Standard

2.4.1. General

Substantive changes to existing standards shall be processed in accordance with this section. A substantive change is one that directly and materially affects the use of the standard. A change in the edition of any documents referenced within the provisions of the standard is a substantive change. See ANSI's Essential Requirements: Annex A for further clarification.

2.4.2. Timing

The ExCom or responsible entity for an ASCE standard shall establish a schedule for review and revision at intervals not to exceed five years. Extensions beyond this five year period shall be approved by both the appropriate ExCom and CSC.

2.4.3. Minimum Requirements

Revision of an existing standard shall include the following:

- a. A Committee letter ballot to revise the standard processed in accordance with Section 5.

- b. Significant changes summarized in a Foreword.
- c. CSC staff notification to ASCE Publications that the current standard has been revised.

2.5. Using ANSI Stabilized Maintenance for an Existing ANSI standard

An ASCE standard designated as an American National Standard shall be permitted to be maintained under ANSI's stabilized maintenance option.

For a standard to be considered for ANSI's stabilized maintenance option all of the following eligibility criteria shall be satisfied:

- b. The standard is other than safety or health-related.
- c. The standard has been reaffirmed at least once.
- d. The standard was last approved or revised at least ten years ago.
- e. The standard is required for use in connection with existing implementations or for reference purposes.

For a complete listing of procedures refer to Section 4.7.3 of ANSI Essential Requirements.

2.6. Withdrawing an Existing Consensus Standard

2.6.1. Recommendation for Withdrawal

In the event an existing consensus standard becomes obsolete, is no longer in demand, or is no longer appropriate for ASCE, the responsible Committee shall be permitted to process a letter ballot for recommendation of withdrawal at any time. Alternatively, the ExCom or CSC shall be permitted to recommend withdrawal by a two-thirds approval vote. Any recommendation shall describe the reason why the standard is obsolete, no longer in demand, or no longer appropriate for ASCE.

2.6.2. Withdrawal of Standard

Once the recommendation for withdraw is approved, the following steps shall be taken:

- a. ASCE staff notifies Members, (see Section 3), of the intent to withdraw the standard.
- b. Members have 30 calendar days to submit relevant written comments to the appropriate ExCom.

- c. The ExCom reviews the comments and makes a recommendation (by two-thirds approval) to CSC.
- d. Upon concurrence of the ExCom recommendation, CSC authorizes a public announcement for posting on the ASCE and other appropriate institute websites.
- e. Public Comments are processed in accordance with Section 5.10
- f. The final decision to withdraw a standard requires a two-thirds approval by CSC.
- g. For ANS designated standards, upon final approval of withdrawal by the CSC, ANSI will be so notified immediately and the standard will be withdrawn as an ANS and announced in Standards Action.

2.6.3. Sunsetting an Existing Committee. The ExCom or responsible entity shall have authority to discharge by two-thirds approval the complete membership of the Committee. CSC staff will notify the Members of the Committee and CSC of this action.

2.7. Developing Memorandums of Understanding between ASCE and other SDOs for the Purpose of a Standardization Activity

When circumstances dictate that ASCE enters a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with another SDO for the purpose of developing and coordinating standardization activities, the MOU shall establish rules and procedures to be followed and identify the lead organization when multiple organizations are developing a consensus standard. ASCE desires, when possible, to be the lead organization and that its rules and procedures govern the joint standardization effort.

MOUs shall contain, but are not limited to, the following items:

- a. Purpose of the cooperative activity.
- b. Roles and responsibilities of each party.
- c. Schedule to review activity, performance, or satisfaction with the arrangement.
- d. The parts of the arrangement that are open to change or negotiation and the process by which that can be done.
- e. The aspects of the arrangement that should require formal notification and the process by which that is accomplished.
- f. Resolution process for any disputes.
- g. Any restrictions to either party.

- h. Treatment of any intellectual property.
- i. Effective date and duration of the agreement.
- j. Agreement for termination of the MOU.
- k. Names and contact information for the signing parties.
- l. Agreement for revenue sharing from sales of joint standards.
- m. Place for the parties to sign.

2.8. Communications Regarding Standards

Official communications about standards schedules, procedures or comments that materially affect the future content of the standard shall be approved by the Chair of the Committee or their designated representative. Formal presentations of material from ASCE standards, which are endorsed by ASCE or the appropriate Institute, shall be approved by the Chair of the Committee. See Section 7 for questions related to technical content.

3. COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

3.1. Approval of Members

3.1.1. General

The voting Members of a Committee shall be considered the consensus body for the purposes of any ANSI accredited process. Membership shall be open to any person who might reasonably be expected to be, or who indicates they are, directly or indirectly affected by the activity. Membership may be denied if admitting that person or party to the committee creates dominance (See Section 3.2.3) by a single interest category (See Section 3.2.1) or organization. ASCE membership is not required for Committee membership. ASCE, or appropriate Institute, membership is required for Committee Chairs and Vice-Chairs.

3.1.2. Application for Membership

An individual seeking membership shall submit to ASCE Codes and Standards staff an application on a prescribed form upon which the applicant shall:

- a. Identify their membership interest category.
- b. Identify their desired voting status: voting or associate member, if available.
- c. Include a brief resume and a statement that shall describe the applicant's interest in and commitment to participation in the work of the Committee.

3.1.3. Chair's Actions

The Chair shall act to accept or reject the application based on qualifications and Committee balance in accordance with Section 3.2, forward notice of such action in writing to ASCE Codes and Standards staff, and report the action taken to the Committee at its next meeting or at least annually.

3.1.4. Appeal of Chair's Actions

If denied membership, the applicant shall be permitted to request a full Committee vote. A majority vote of those voting yes or no is required to overturn the Chair's action. The applicant shall be permitted to appeal the Committee's decision to the ExCom per Section 6.4.2.

3.1.5. Restrictions During Ballot Process

Voting Members shall not be admitted to the Committee during the balloting process unless approved by the ExCom, except as noted in Section 3.2.7. The balloting process shall comprise the time period from the first Committee ballot to the publication of the standard.

3.2. Balance

3.2.1. Membership Categories

Committee Membership shall be balanced among the following categories:

- a. Consumer: Includes representatives of owners, owners' organizations, designers and consultants retained by owners, testing laboratories retained by owners, facility operators, and insurance companies serving owners.
- b. Producer: Includes representatives of manufacturers, distributors, developers, contractors and subcontractors, construction labor organizations, and associations of these groups and professional consultants to these groups.
- c. General: Includes representatives of the general public having an interest in the process or product being standardized, such as from private, state, and federal research organizations; public interest groups; and standards and model code organizations. Committee members in the Regulatory category are part of the General category when assessing balance.
- d. Regulatory: For those standards intended to be used for regulatory purposes by local, state or federal agencies, regulators are an additional interest category for those standards. For those standards intended for regulatory adoption, a minimum of one regulatory member shall be included in the committee voting membership.

3.2.2. Determination of Category

The Chair shall make the final determination of a Member's category or, if the Chair so requests, the Committee shall make the final determination by simple majority vote. Members in disagreement with their assigned category shall be permitted to appeal to the ExCom, whose decision is final.

3.2.3. Balance Criteria

The following criteria shall apply for balance of voting members:

- a. Consumers: 20 to 40 percent.
- b. Producers: 20 to 40 percent.
- c. General: 20 to 40 percent.
- d. Regulatory: 0 to 15 percent. For mandatory standards of regulatory interest see Section 3.2.1c.

3.2.4. Represented Interests

Membership within each category shall be well distributed. No organization shall have more than one person as a Member on a Committee. If a Chair presents compelling evidence that multiple persons from a single organization are necessary for the progress of the standard, the ExCom shall be permitted to grant an exception to this requirement within the guidelines of dominance and balance. Appeal from an affected party regarding this issue shall be permitted to be made to the ExCom. If it is not resolved, the appeal shall proceed in accordance with Section 6 of these Rules.

3.2.5. Committee Size

The ExCom shall be permitted to establish a minimum and maximum Committee size by a majority vote. For an ANSI/ASCE standard the minimum Committee size shall be not less than twelve.

3.2.6. Committee Roster

ASCE staff shall maintain current Committee rosters. The Committee Chair is required to notify CSC staff of any roster changes and CSC staff is required to notify the Chair of any imbalance on the Committee. Prior to entering the balloting process, as defined in Section 3.1.4, staff should ascertain that the Committee is in proper balance.

3.2.7. Termination or Reclassification of Membership

Termination of membership on a Committee shall be permitted for the following cases:

- a. Membership shall be automatically terminated if a Member fails to vote or abstains without reason on a majority of items on two consecutive Committee letter ballots. The Chair shall be permitted to reinstate a Member terminated for this reason if the Member submits a written request, including a satisfactory explanation for the inactivity, within 30 calendar days after a notification of termination is issued.
- b. Membership shall be terminated for cause in accordance with the following process:
 - i. Chair shall present, in writing, to CSC staff a “cause” for termination.
 - ii. Staff will transmit statement of cause to the Member that is being recommended for termination.
 - iii. Member shall have 30 calendar days to submit to staff a written response to the statement of cause. The response shall be submitted in electronic format to CSC Staff. If no response is received within 30 calendar days the member is terminated automatically.
 - iv. Staff will transmit Member’s response to the Chair.
 - v. The Chair will be provided the opportunity to submit to staff a rebuttal within 14 calendar days of transmittal of the Member’s response. The Chair’s rebuttal should not introduce new “for cause” reasons for termination beyond the original statement of cause but can address points introduced by the Member’s response.
 - vi. Staff will forward Chair’s rebuttal to the Member. Member shall have 14 calendar days from transmittal to submit to staff a response to the rebuttal which will be transmitted to the Chair. In this second response, the Member cannot introduce new issues not presented in either the original statement of cause for termination, or the Chair’s rebuttal to the Member’s initial response.
 - vii. A letter ballot will be issued to the Committee by staff to vote to recommend termination of the Member.
 - viii. The letter ballot shall include the statement of cause, Member’s response, Chair’s rebuttal and the Member’s response to the rebuttal, as applicable.

- ix. The letter ballot shall be processed in accordance with Section 5.3. However, no abstentions will be considered. In accordance with Section 5.6.3.1, comments will be included with the ballot report, but need not be addressed by the Committee.
- x. If the ballot item fails the Member remains a member of the Committee.
- xi. The recommendation for approval of termination shall require a two-thirds vote by the ExCom. The Chair, Member, and Committee will be notified of the ExCom decision.
- xii. Reclassification of Member. A Member is permitted to be reclassified with concurrence by both the Chair and the Member if the change does not violate the balance criteria. Reclassification from Associate to Voting Member status requires notification to the ExCom or responsible entity.

Membership may also be terminated by the voluntary resignation of a Member.

3.2.8. Subordinate Groups

The Chair shall be permitted to establish or disband subordinate groups (e.g., subcommittees, work groups, task groups) to assist in meeting the Committee's objectives. The Chair shall establish the rules to be followed by the subordinate group.

3.2.9. Associate Members

Any ASCE member shall be entitled to Associate Member status on any Committee. An Associate Member shall be designated as a Committee member without voting privileges. The process for admitting an Associate Member to an existing Committee shall be the same as that for a voting Committee Member; however, the number of Associate Members shall not affect the balance of the Committee or the dominance of single interest unit.

Associate Members shall be included in the Committee Roster, which appears in the ASCE Official Register and in the front of the published standard.

Associate Members of the Committee shall be included in the balloting process for all proposals being considered by the Committee. Comments submitted by Associate Members shall be reported and treated in the same manner as Public comments. The votes by Associate Members shall not be tabulated in the formal determination of reaching consensus of the Committee.

3.3. Officers

3.3.1. Committee Officers

The ExCom shall appoint the Chair by majority vote. The Chair shall appoint a Vice-Chair and a Secretary, and the Committee shall confirm the appointments by majority vote at a duly constituted meeting. Except in the case where the Committee is operating under an MOU, as developed in Section 2.7, the Chair and Vice-Chair shall be an ASCE or Institute member.

3.3.2. Subordinate Group Officers

Subordinate group chairs shall be appointed by the Chair and serve at the discretion of the Chair.

3.3.3. Removal of Officers

ExComs shall be permitted to remove Committee Officers from office by a two-thirds approval.

4.1.2. Budgets

The Committee officers, upon request, shall be responsible for preparing and submitting to the appropriate entity within ASCE proposed budgets for Committee operations including meeting expenses, travel, and other related costs.

4.1.3. Reports

Each Chair shall submit reports as required by its ExCom.

4.1.4. Administrative Issues

Voting on administrative and process matters exclusive of direct balloting on standards documents shall be determined by simple majority of those attending a meeting satisfying the quorum requirements of Section 4.4.4.

4.1.5. Records Retention and Disposal

Records shall be retained for a period of 10 years or until approval of the subsequent revision or reaffirmation of the complete standard, whichever is longer. Records concerning withdrawn standards shall be retained for at least five years from the date of withdrawal. CSC shall approve disposing of records. Requests by ASCE staff to dispose of records shall identify the affected standard, age of the records, and the type of records.

4.1.6. Records and Auditing

The Committee's secretary shall be responsible for developing, recording, and maintaining records, in cooperation with ASCE staff. All records shall be maintained at ASCE Headquarters and be readily accessible from ASCE staff or the Committee secretary. Records shall include, but are not limited to, the following items:

- a. Rosters, including Members' information, applications, biographical summaries, and balance of interest categories.

- h. Resolution of conflicts from Committee letter ballots.
- i. Items deferred to next revision cycle.

- j. Documents required by ANSI for ANS designated standards, such as PSA forms, copies of appeals and responses, interpretations and evidence of processing those requests.

4.2. Standards Development

4.2.1. Referencing Standards and Publications.

4.2.1.1. Mandatory Standards

4.2.1.1.1. Mandatory standards referenced in ASCE Standards shall be written using mandatory language, shall be identifiable by title, date or edition, and name of the developing organization.

4.2.1.1.2. The Committee shall adopt the latest edition of the mandatory standard available at the time of balloting. Only one edition of a mandatory standard shall be adopted. If the current edition is not suitable or multiple editions of a mandatory standard need to be referenced, then an exception is permitted to be granted by the ExCom and shall be noted in the Foreword or Commentary of the standard.

4.2.1.2. Nonmandatory Standards

Standards that do not comply with Section 4.2.1.1 shall only be referenced as nonmandatory standards and shall only be included as advisory material in an ASCE Standard or commentary.

4.2.1.3. Referencing Nonmandatory Publications in ASCE Standard Guidelines

Publications referenced in ASCE Standard Guidelines establishing recommended practices shall be subject to Section 4.2.1.4.

4.2.1.4. Referencing Other Documents

When a reference is made to another document, including other publications prepared by any organization, such a reference shall contain the title, date or edition, name of the developing organization and preferably the specific parts of the document to which reference is made. Committees shall include such references only after review of such documents or publications, satisfying themselves that the references are adequate and appropriate. The Committee shall provide a copy of the reference document to ASCE Headquarters, if the reference document is not readily available from other sources.

4.2.1.5. Conflicts with Other Standards

Committees shall make every effort to avoid conflicts with other ASCE standards or those of ANSI-accredited SDOs. When exceptions are taken to requirements in other ASCE mandatory standards, the Committee shall notify the affected ASCE Committee. CSC shall adjudicate all unresolved conflicts in accordance with Section 2.2.5.

International Standards Committees shall take relevant ISO or IEC Standards into consideration and, if appropriate, shall base their standards on, or consider the adoption of an ISO or IEC Standard as an ASCE Standard. Technical Activity Groups (TAGs) exist for most standards projects for which the United States has evidenced substantial interest. These groups shall be permitted to be contacted for information and advice through their TAG Administrators or Technical Advisors (as relevant) who are on record at ANSI headquarters.

4.2.2. Supplemental Operating Procedures

A Committee shall be permitted to adopt Supplemental Operating Procedures, provided that such procedures are consistent with, and no less stringent than, the Bylaws of ASCE, Institute Operating Procedures and the ASCE Rules for Standards Committees. Such procedures and amendments thereto shall be transmitted to ASCE staff, who shall submit them to its ExCom and CSC for approval.

4.2.3. Standards Format and Style

Committees shall follow the latest editions of the ASCE Standards Writing Manual and ASCE's Editor's Guide for Standards.

4.2.4. Commentaries

For all mandatory standards Committees shall provide a Commentary, separate and apart from the consensus standard, that provides the technical and administrative rationale for the standardization. The Committee shall approve commentaries by letter ballot in accordance with Section 5.3.

4.2.5. Commercial Terms and Conditions

Provisions involving business relations between buyer and seller such as guarantees, warranties, assignment of responsibility of work, and other commercial terms and conditions shall not be included in a standard or its commentary.

- a. The appearance that a standard endorses any particular products, services or companies shall be avoided. Proper names or trademarks of specific companies or organizations, manufacturer lists, service provider lists, or similar material shall not be included in the text of a standard or its commentary (or the equivalent).

- b. Where a sole source exists for essential equipment, materials or services necessary to determine compliance with the standard, it shall be permitted to supply the name and address of the source in a footnote or commentary as long as the words “or the equivalent” are added to the reference.
- c. In connection with standards that relate to the determination of whether products or services conform to one or more standards, the process or criteria to determine conformity shall be permitted to be standardized as long as the description of the process or criteria is limited to technical and engineering concerns and does not include what would otherwise be a commercial term or proper name.

4.2.6. Units

Dimensions and quantities shall be expressed in International System of Units (SI units) followed by conversion to U.S. Customary units in parentheses; or in U.S. Customary units followed by conversion to SI units in parentheses, whichever appears to the Committee to be in the best interests of the users of the standard. The conversion of all formulas, equations, and tables in the other units shall be permitted to be placed in an appendix to the standard instead of being included in parentheses in the body of the standard. No conversion shall be required if a standard is published in two separate versions—the SI or the metric version and the U.S. Customary units version. Conversion shall be in accordance with IEEE/ASTM-SI-10-02 American National Standard for Use of the International System of Units (SI): The Modern Metric System. Each scope statement shall include the Committee’s intention relative to the use of SI.

4.3. Patented and Proprietary Items

4.3.1. General

There is no objection in principle to writing an ASCE Standard in terms that include the use of essential patent claim(s) (one whose use would be required for compliance with that standard) if it is considered that technical reasons justify this approach. Participants in the Society’s standards development process are encouraged to bring patents with claims believed to be essential to the attention of the Society. If the Society receives a notice that a proposed standard or revision to an existing standard requires the use of a patented item(s), the procedures specified in Sections 4.3.2 to 4.3.7 shall be followed.

4.3.2. Statement from Patent Holder

Before balloting any text whose acceptance would include the use of an essential patent claim(s) in an ASCE Standard, the Society shall receive from any identified patent holder or a party authorized to make assurances on its behalf in written or electronic form either:

- a. Assurance in the form of a general disclaimer to the effect that such party does not hold and does not currently intend on holding any essential patent claim(s) or assurance that the following occur:
- b. Assurance that a license to such essential patent claim(s) will be made available to applicants desiring to utilize the license for the purpose of implementing the standard either:
 - i. Under reasonable terms and conditions that are demonstrably free of any unfair discrimination; or
 - ii. Without compensation and under reasonable terms and conditions that are demonstrably free of any unfair discrimination.

Such assurance shall indicate that the patent holder (or third party to make assurances on its behalf) will include any documents transferring ownership of patents subject to the assurance provisions sufficient to ensure that the commitments in the assurance are binding on the transferee and the transferee will similarly include appropriate provisions in the event of future transfers with the goal of binding each successor-in-interest. The assurance shall also indicate that it is intended to be binding on successor-in-interest regardless of whether such provisions are included in the relevant transfer documents.

4.3.3. Record of Statement

A record of the patent holder's statement shall be placed and retained in ASCE's files and in ANSI's files for designated American National Standards.

4.3.4. Notification During Balloting Process

Where a Committee is considering the inclusion of a patented item, the Committee shall include a statement in the balloting process indicating a willingness to consider alternatives. The statement with the ballot shall include a request for an alternative(s) as follows:

The (name of material, product, process, procedure, apparatus) is covered by a patent. If you are aware of an alternative(s) to the patented item, please attach a description of the alternatives to the ballot return. All suggestions will be considered by the standards committee.

4.3.5. Responsibility for Identifying Patents

Neither a Committee nor ASCE nor ANSI shall be responsible for identifying all patents for which a license shall be permitted to be required in using an ASCE standard or for conducting inquiries into the legal validity or scope of those patents that are brought to the Society's attention.

4.3.6. Notice

When the Society receives from a patent holder the assurance set forth in 4.3.2, the standard shall include a note as follows:

NOTE—The user's attention is called to the possibility that compliance with this standard may require use of an item covered by patent rights.

By publication of this standard, the American Society of Civil Engineers takes no position with respect to the validity of this claim or of any patent rights in connection therewith. Users of this standard are expressly advised that determination of the validity of any such patent rights, and the risk of infringement of such rights, are entirely their own responsibility. The patent holder has, however, filed a statement of willingness to grant a license under these rights on reasonable and nondiscriminatory terms and conditions to applicants desiring to obtain such a license. Details shall be permitted to be obtained from ASCE.

4.3.7. Footnote

In addition, a statement shall be placed in a footnote of the standard in each specific section of the standard in which the patented item is mentioned. The footnote shall be as follows:

The (name of material, product, process, procedure, apparatus) is covered by a patent. Interested parties are invited to submit information regarding the identification of an alternative(s) to this patented item to ASCE Headquarters. Your comments will receive consideration at a meeting of the responsible standards committee, which you shall be permitted to attend.

4.3.8. Antitrust

ASCE Standards shall be developed in accordance with applicable antitrust and competition laws and meetings amongst competitors to develop ASCE standards are to be conducted in accordance with these laws

4.4. Committee Meetings

4.4.1. General

Committee meetings shall be conducted in a format that permits Members to interact directly, including face-to-face meetings, tele- or web conferences, video conferencing, and any combination of these methods.

4.4.2. Frequency and Location

The Committee shall base the frequency of its meetings on its current activities, operating needs, and budget. The Chair shall be permitted to call a meeting at a time and place deemed suitable. The Chair shall call a meeting of the Committee on written request of five Members, and not less than 10 percent of the Committee membership, whichever number is larger.

4.4.3. Notification

A minimum of 30 calendar days' notice shall be given to Members for an in-person meeting requiring travel and 15 calendar days' notice for a tele- or web conference. An agenda shall accompany notification of meetings. Public notice for a Committee meeting shall be published at least 15 calendar days before the meeting; publication of the notice on ASCE's website or the ExCom's or Committee's website shall be a minimum requirement. Exceptions to these requirements shall be approved by the ExCom.

4.4.4. Quorum

For all meetings, a quorum shall be greater than 50 percent of the Members in person or via tele-or web conferencing. If a quorum is not present at a duly called meeting, those assembled shall be permitted to proceed with the specific agenda; however, all actions taken, except those actions listed below shall be submitted to letter ballot for confirmation by the entire Committee:

- a. Approve agenda, including additions/deletions of agenda items.
- b. Approve minutes if they were distributed in advance to the Committee.
- c. Approve submitting a proposal for a new standard activity or to revise an existing standard to letter ballot by the Committee in accordance with Section 5.3.
- d. Establish the date and location of future meetings.

4.4.5. Parliamentary Procedures

The rules contained in the latest edition of Roberts Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the ASCE Rules for Standards Committees.

4.4.6. Open Meetings

All Committee meetings shall be open and attendance by interested parties welcomed in accordance with the following:

- a. Visitors shall have neither the right to vote nor the right to receive copies of the minutes, except by specific decision of the Chair.
- b. Visitors shall be permitted to address the Committee on a subject relevant to items under consideration, provided due notice of this intent is received by the Chair at least 10 calendar days prior to the meeting. The Chair shall be permitted to waive the 10-calendar day notice and shall be permitted to designate the time allotted for such presentation.

4.4.7. Recording of Meetings

Any recording of meetings shall be approved by the Chair and shall remain the property of ASCE.

5. RULES FOR PROCESSING ASCE STANDARDS

5.1. Applicability of Rules

Proposed provisions for a new standard or changes to an existing standard, including the title of the standard, the foreword and abstract, applicable commentaries and appendices, shall be processed in accordance with these Rules. These Rules shall not be applied to material not directly related to the provisions of the standard, including items such as the, Table of Contents, Committee Roster, Copyright Page, and Index.

5.2. Proposed Standard Provisions

All proposed provisions for a new standard or changes to an existing standard shall be approved through a letter ballot of the Committee. Any person shall be permitted to submit proposed standard provisions at any time to the Chair with a request that the proposed provision be considered by a letter ballot of the Committee. The Chair shall take one of the following actions in response to the request:

- a. Make a determination to approve or deny the request and notify the Committee of the proposed provisions and the determination.
- b. Defer the request for consideration at the next Committee meeting.

5.3. Committee Letter Balloting

5.3.1. General

The Chair shall prepare a letter ballot using the ASCE balloting system. A ballot or ballot item shall not be constructed in such a manner so as to assume the vote of an individual if they fail to return a ballot.

5.3.2. Voting

Members shall respond to items by casting votes as follows:

- a. Affirmative: To indicate concurrence with the ballot item.
- b. Affirmative with comment: To indicate concurrence with a ballot item with a comment.
- c. Negative: To indicate opposition to the ballot item.
- d. Negative with comment.
- e. Abstain: To indicate that the Member is not in a position to cast an alternative vote because of a lack of familiarity with the issues addressed by the ballot item.

5.3.3. Voting Period

The voting period for letter ballots shall be established by each Committee for each letter ballot, but in no case shall it be less than 30 calendar days. All letter ballots shall be counted by ASCE staff and reported to the Committee within 30 calendar days following the voting period.

5.3.4. Confidentiality

Member's votes on all letter ballots shall remain confidential until the voting period is closed.

5.5.3. Persuasive Substantive

If the Chair determines the comment to be persuasive and a substantive change is required, the Chair shall submit the proposed revision to the Committee for approval by letter ballot in accordance with Section 5.4.

5.5.4. Non-Persuasive or Unrelated

If the Chair determines the comment is non-persuasive or unrelated to the proposal under consideration, all Members will be notified of this determination and the vote shall be recorded as an “affirm with comment vote with a non-persuasive (or an unrelated) comment.” No further action is necessary to resolve affirm with comment votes with non-persuasive or unrelated comments.

Negative votes that have an explanation and/or a suggestion for revision pertinent to the issue being balloted shall be resolved by one of the following methods:

- a. If the Chair determines the negative comment to be persuasive editorial, the comment shall be incorporated and:
 - i. The Chair’s determination shall be circulated to all Members to provide the opportunity to respond, reaffirm, or change their vote on the ballot item associated with the negative vote in question.
 - ii. The negative voter shall be permitted to request a Committee vote on the Chair’s determination by submitting a written request to the Chair within 15 calendar days of notification of the Chair’s action. The Chair shall be permitted to conduct the vote at a meeting or by letter ballot. If the Committee fails to uphold the Chair’s determination by a consensus vote, the negative vote shall be processed in accordance with the other provisions of this section.
- b. If the Committee previously found the comment accompanying a negative vote to be non-persuasive in a letter ballot, the Committee is not required to reconsider the comment unless new technical information not previously known to the Committee was introduced with the vote.

- c. Consideration of standards provisions based upon negative votes that include comments and recommendations related to new technical data, evidence or issues, shall be permitted to be postponed until the next standard revision cycle, if approved by a majority vote of the Committee at a duly constituted meeting or by a letter ballot. The new technical data must be provided to the Committee either with the letter ballot or no less than 15 calendar days before the meeting at which the vote on postponement is held. If the Committee votes to approve postponement at a meeting, the approval shall be circulated to all Members to provide the opportunity to respond, reaffirm, or change their vote on the postponement.
- d. If the Chair determines the suggested explanation for the negative vote and suggested change is persuasive, the Chair shall submit the persuasive negative vote, with the voter's explanation and the suggested change, to the Committee for approval by letter ballot in accordance with Section 5.4.
- e. If the Chair determines the suggested explanation for the negative vote and suggested change is non-persuasive, the Chair shall submit the non-persuasive negative vote, including the voter's explanation and suggested change, and the Chair's reason for proposing to find the vote non-persuasive to the Committee for consideration by a letter ballot. Committee votes to find negative comments non-persuasive shall be straight "yes" or "no" votes unless otherwise indicated in the ballot instructions.
 - i. If the Committee approves finding a negative vote to be non-persuasive by letter ballot, no further action is required.
 - ii. If the Committee fails to find a negative vote to be non-persuasive, the Chair shall either drop the relevant provision to which the voter objects from the standard, or declare the negative vote persuasive and further processed as a new proposed standards provision in accordance with Section 5.2. If the Committee approves finding a negative vote to be non-persuasive by letter ballot, no further action is required.

5.6.2.2. Negative Votes with an Unrelated Comment

If the negative vote is accompanied by a comment that is not related to the proposal under consideration, the negative vote shall be recorded as a "negative vote with an unrelated comment." No action is necessary to resolve negative votes with an unrelated comment.

5.6.2.3. Negative Votes with No Comment

Negative votes submitted without an accompanying comment shall be recorded as a “negative vote without comment.” No action is necessary to resolve negative votes with no comment.

5.7. Editorial Changes

An editorial change in a standard shall be considered one that does not directly and materially affect the use of the standard. Anyone shall be permitted to submit in writing to the Chair a request to make an editorial change to the standard. If the Chair determines the change is editorial, all Members will be notified of this ruling and provided with a 15 calendar day opportunity to challenge the ruling. If challenged, the proposed change shall be processed as a proposed revision in accordance with these Rules.

5.8. Errata

Errata shall be limited to discrepancies between the balloted and published version of the standard and typographical errors in the published version of the standard. Errata shall be approved by the Chair and need not be processed as a proposed revision in accordance with these Rules.

5.9. CSC Approval of Final Committee Draft Standards and Commentaries

After a Committee approves a proposed standard and commentary, the Chair shall send the draft standard, commentary, and final report regarding procedural matters (such as Committee letter ballots and disposition of negative votes) to the ExCom and CSC for review and approval. The scope of the ExCom and CSC review shall be limited to issues related to assuring compliance with the Rules.

Any individual who is not a Member of the Committee shall be permitted to participate in the ASCE Public Comment Period on the standard. The minimum public review period shall be 45 calendar days if the publication is available electronically, otherwise it shall be 60 calendar days. Submissions received during the ASCE Public Comment Period (period) shall be compiled within 30 calendar days of the close of the period. Comments submitted after the close of the period shall be permitted to be, at the discretion of the Chair, resolved during the current period or shall be considered during the next revision cycle of the standard in accordance with the following:

- a. Resolving ASCE Public Comments. All substantive changes resulting from the resolution of comments submitted by reviewers during the period shall be re-circulated to the Committee. The Committee shall process negative and substantive affirmative public comments in accordance with Sections 5.4 and 5.6.
- b. Approving Standards and Commentaries. CSC shall issue a final report on the period certifying compliance with these rules and procedural matters. CSC shall approve the standard and any commentaries only after determining that they were developed in compliance with the Rules.

5.11. Revision or Reaffirmation

A Committee responsible for an ASCE standard shall establish a schedule providing for review and needed revision or reaffirmation at intervals not to exceed five (5) years.

A schedule update shall be provided to CSC annually. After ten (10) years, if there has been no reaffirmation or revision, the standard shall be considered for withdrawal by the appropriate ExCom and CSC. Revisions shall consider all formal interpretations by the Committee. Requests for revisions to a standard shall be permitted to be made by any person or organization in accordance with Section 5.2, and shall be addressed in writing to CSC. If no request for revision is received, the standard shall be reaffirmed by Committee letter ballot followed by the ASCE Public Comment period(s), which shall be conducted in accordance with these Rules.

5.12. Designation as an American National Standard

A standard intended for designation as an American National Standard (ANS) shall be processed in accordance with ANSI's procedures, including the current edition of ANSI Essential Requirements. A standard that is approved as an ANS shall have its cover or title page marked with an approved ANSI logo furnished by ANSI or the words "an American National Standard."

In addition to ASCE voting procedures, a standard intended for ANS shall be processed using the following voting procedures in accordance with ANSI Essential Requirements:

- a. After conclusion of regular balloting of proposals and approval by the appropriate ExCom and CSC to move to a public ballot, a single Committee consensus ballot, clearly indicated as such, shall be held for the entire proposed standard. This ballot shall be permitted to occur concurrently with the ASCE and ANSI public comment period. This consensus ballot shall be the ballot reported to ANSI via their official ANS reporting process.
- b. At the conclusion of the consensus ballot, negative comments shall be processed in accordance with Section 5.3. Objectors from the public comment period and the consensus vote shall be provided a written disposition of the objection and the reasons for the disposition.
- c. Any substantive change made to a proposed standard following public review shall require another public comment period shall occur, in accordance with Section 5.10.2, concurrent with a committee recirculation ballot in accordance with ANSI Essential Requirements. Committee voters shall be provided the opportunity to comment, reaffirm, or change their vote due to recommended substantive changes, attempts at resolution and unresolved objections. The purpose of the recirculation ballot shall be clearly indicated. Following the consensus ballot and the recirculation ballot of Section 5.12b, the Standard shall be forwarded to CSC for final approval. Results of the consensus ballot and recirculation ballot will be reported to ANSI, including unresolved objections and evidence of attempts at resolution.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Student Chapters

The objective of the ASCE Student Chapter is to help students prepare themselves for entry into the Civil Engineering profession and society.

Through their activities, ASCE Student Chapters:

- Develop students' technical and professional skills
- Introduce students to the profession and to practitioners to build professional relationships
- Promote a sense of community, belonging, and fun among members
- Develop students' knowledge of ASCE, and stewardship within the profession

These intentions can be achieved through a variety of activities including, but not limited to:

Maintaining a robust program of Chapter activities including:

- Speakers
- Field trips
- Social/networking events
- Community engagement

Providing opportunities for professional development including:

- Leadership roles in the chapter
- Participation in conferences, symposia and workshops
- Introduction to government, policy, and sustainability initiatives

Engaging with other students and professionals through participation in:

- Annual ASCE conference events including the Workshop for Student Chapter

Leaders (WSCL) and annual Student Symposia

- Society-sponsored student competitions
- Region, Section, Branch, and Younger Member Forum events

The formation of Student Chapters was authorized by the Board of Direction in 1920. Student Chapters may be established at universities that have an engineering or engineering technology program related to civil engineering and leading to an engineering or engineering technology degree. The various provisions for Student Chapter establishment and procedures are outlined in the ASCE Bylaws and Rules. The Student Organization Handbook provides a complete guide for Chapter activity.

Each Chapter is recommended to have the following advisory personnel assignments:

- Faculty Advisors (up to two)

- Practitioner Advisors (up to two)

To remain a Chapter in good standing, each Student Chapter is required to submit Annual Dues and an Annual Report of Chapter activities. (See ASCE Bylaws 9.2.1.9.2 for more deadlines and more information.)

Services provided to ASCE Student Chapters encompass awards, contests, workshops and conferences, Society membership (Student Member grade), program materials, scholarships, and publications. Graduating Chapter members are automatically enrolled in a one-year Affiliate or Associate membership.

Student Chapter Awards

Each year, the Committee on Student Members evaluates and scores the annual reports of activity submitted by the Student Chapters for the purpose of determining the recipients of the Student Chapter Awards. The scoring formula, which is made available to accompany report forms, also serves as a recommended set of goals or guidelines. More frequent meetings, field trips, attendance at conferences, presentations of papers, and the undertaking of special projects are encouraged. While scores remain confidential, a Student Chapter can grade itself in the statistical portion and estimate the subjective rating of the value of their special projects.

Based on the scoring of the annual reports, the Committee on Student Members determines the winner of the Robert Ridgway Award, and the Robert Ridgway Award Finalists. The most outstanding student Chapters in each Region are awarded Distinguished Chapter Awards.

A limited number of Student Chapters may be awarded Certificates of Commendation based on the quality of their general performance. The certificates are awarded by the President of the Society upon recommendation by the Committee on Student Members. The number of Student Chapters to receive Certificates of Commendation shall not exceed five percent of the total number of Student Chapters

Those Student Chapters that miss receiving Certificates of Commendation, but still report outstanding activity may receive a Letter of Honorable Mention. The number of Student Chapters receiving Letters of Honorable Mention shall not exceed one-third of the total number of Student Chapters.

The Committee on Student Members also gives awards for Outstanding Faculty and Practitioner Advisors, based on nominations received from the Student Chapter members.

ASCE Global Relations

ASCE Region 10 Sections

ASCE members in the 174 countries outside of North America are a part of ASCE Region 10, represented by the R10 Board of Governors and facilitated by ASCE Global Programs staff. There are 30 Sections* (Map, Appendix 1) formed at the country level by ASCE voting members and governed by member leaders with an active role in managing, overseeing activities, incorporating ASCE programs for member benefit, and communicating with ASCE, the Region, and Global Programs.  Change to Society bylaws for the International Group entity retirement was approved in October 2024 with the automatic transition of past 12 Groups to Sections.*

ASCE Region 10 Sections are formed to promote technical and professional development of members through meetings, guest speakers, technical sessions, preparation and discussion of papers; brainstorm opportunities to solve common problems such as local legislative issues and management challenges through the study of local engineering practices; expand the circle of professional contacts and develop leadership skills; foster student activities and cooperate with local ASCE Student Chapters; promote the spirit of cooperation among civil engineers and other engineering societies in matters of common interest, while attaining the objectives of ASCE.

YOUNGER MEMBER ACTIVITIES

Younger Member Groups/Forums

ASCE recognizes that younger civil engineers are the future of the profession and provides opportunities to help Younger Members make friends in the profession, grow their careers and develop as leaders in their communities.

Where there are active centers of engineering populations age 35 and under, young professionals are encouraged to form peer-to-peer networking groups as components of ASCE's Geographic Sections and Branches to foster engagement of young members and help carry out the work of the Society.

The formation of a Younger Member group/ forum is authorized by the local sections and branches. The groups may establish bylaws in coordination with the Section and function semi-autonomously. The Younger Member Group Handbook provides a complete guide to establishing and managing a Younger Member group.

Each year a Society level award is given to the most successful large and small Younger Member group.

PUBLIC POLICY

The public policy mission of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) is to serve the public and the engineering profession by:

Advocating for the Society's strategic goal of enhancing infrastructure and environmental stewardship to protect the public health and safety and improve the quality of life.

- Promoting the understanding and participation of ASCE members in public policy.
- Developing pro-active public policy positions on civil engineering issues.
- Educating public policymakers about the impacts of legislative and regulatory proposals on public health and safety, the economy and the profession.

ASCE Policy Documents

On public policy issues affecting the profession, ASCE, through action of its Board of Direction, adopts policy statements or resolutions on numerous subjects. This cumulative effort is intended to maintain a substantial reference for any public pronouncements or comments on public issues. As new policies are adopted, their availability is announced to the membership. Copies of any of these can be obtained by visiting ASCE's web site at <https://www.asce.org/advocacy/policy-statements>.

The four ASCE Policy Committees are charged with the duty of overseeing the development and maintenance of ASCE Policy Statements in the general area assigned. Specifically, the committees should be prepared to review policy documents (Policy Statements and Resolutions); consider proposed policies for recommendation to the Public Policy and Practice Committee (PPPC) by eliciting comments of correlative interests within the Society, comparing with established policies to avoid inconsistency and possible redundancy, judging the legislative and political implications, and revising for clarity, conciseness, and style.

Sustainable Infrastructure

ASCE works to raise awareness of the need to maintain and modernize America's aging infrastructure using environmentally, economically, and socially sustainable and resilient practices. ASCE partnered with the American Public Works Association (APWA) and the American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC) to found the Institute of Sustainable Infrastructure (ISI), which developed the ENVISION rating tool that incorporates economic, social, and environmental criteria in the design, construction, operation and maintenance of infrastructure.

Infrastructure Report Card

Every four years, ASCE releases the Report Card for America's Infrastructure, grading the United States' infrastructure using the familiar format of a school report card to raise awareness about our nation's infrastructure needs. The Report Card is one of the most cited reports on infrastructure and is often referenced by political leaders, the media, and other organizations as the definitive record of the condition of the nation's infrastructure. First started by ASCE in 1998, the most recent Report Card was released in March 2021 with grades for 17 infrastructure categories. ASCE's recommended solutions, state infrastructure facts, and infrastructure gamechangers from across the U.S. are all featured on the Report Card's website (www.infrastructurereportcard.org). The Report Card gave an overall grade of "C-."

ASCE also releases State Infrastructure Report Cards on a rolling basis using the same methodology as the national Report Card. The Report Cards are produced by Sections and Branches, with support from ASCE staff. Additional information about the Infrastructure Report Card and State Report Cards is available at www.infrastructurereportcard.org. To request Report Card outreach and presentation materials or to start a state Report Card please email reportcard@asce.org.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

ASCE Continuing Education is the leader in lifelong learning for civil engineers, providing a comprehensive suite of in-person and online technical programs. The mission of ASCE's Continuing Education Program is to deliver exceptional, state-of-the-practice continuing education to ASCE members, other civil engineers, and other design/construction industry professionals throughout their careers. Programs include:

- Live training in-person and online in various formats such as virtual workshops and seminars, offered throughout the year. Technical committees are encouraged to partner with continuing education to present topics of current interest in their content areas.
- On-demand Courses and Certificate Programs designed to help engineers develop and refine competencies through individual and multi-course programs.
- Customized Group Training to provide tailored training solutions for organizations through single or multi-program packages.
- Exam Preparation to prepare for the PE Civil Exam. Courses provide on-demand recordings along with handouts, homework problems, study tips and email access to instructors.

ASCE's myLearning platform provides a convenient way for members to track their PDHs, create transcripts, print certificates of completion, search for relevant continuing education programs, and access ASCE's Continuing Education Programs.

ASCE is accredited by the International Accreditors for Continuing Education and Training (IACET) and is authorized to issue the IACET CEU through ASCE's Continuing Education Programs, in addition to issuing PDH certificates. The Society's Continuing Education Program also follows NCEES guidelines for continuing professional competency.

THE ARCHITECTURAL ENGINEERING INSTITUTE (AEI) OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS

The Architectural Engineering Institute (AEI) was created through a merger of the National Society of Architectural Engineers and the American Society of Civil Engineers' Architectural Engineering Division, on October 1, 1998. Unique among those represented at ASCE, the architectural engineering field is highly multi-disciplinary. Consequently, AEI serves as the logical home for all professionals in the building industry.

Purpose: AEI serves to unite members of the design building team in an effort to facilitate communication and cooperation, both on a project basis and in the professional and technical areas. The need for a professional organization such as AEI exists because architectural engineering, structural, mechanical, electrical and architectural disciplines all share the effort in the design of buildings in roughly equal parts. As a result, one of the main problems in the industry is the lack of communication among these integral members of the building team.

Because all of these disciplines (and more) must interface and cooperate on a project, technical and design issues in the industry must be addressed in a unified manner in order to advance the state of the building design industry. There is a great need for a national forum for these disciplines to examine issues and exchange views and information. It is for the purpose of providing this forum that it was proposed to establish AEI.

Vision

To be the worldwide resource for the advancement of the design and construction of integrated buildings.

Mission

To promote an integrated, multi-disciplinary approach to planning, design, construction and operation of buildings by encouraging innovation, collaboration and excellence in practice, education and research of architectural engineering.

The Architectural Engineering Institute admits both Individual Members and Organizational Members. The different categories of membership are (Article 2):

- Fellow
- Individual Member
- Associate Member
- Affiliate Member
- Student Member
- Supporting Organizational Member
- Sustaining Organizational Member

CONSTRUCTION INSTITUTE OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS

On October 1, 2000, the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) officially established the semi-autonomous Construction Institute (CI). The Construction Institute incorporates the former ASCE Construction Division, the ASCE Materials Division and the ASCE Construction Standards Council. In addition to ASCE members who select construction or materials as their primary technical affiliation, CI membership is open to all persons involved in delivering the construction project, designing the construction project, or teaching construction. Further, the Construction Institute actively seeks members who work for equipment suppliers, material suppliers, testing laboratories, bonding agencies, insurance providers, financial firms, accounting firms, and legal firms that support and contribute to the growth and development of the construction industry.

The Construction Institute is the first national organization designed to meet the needs of all individuals working within the construction industry. The Construction Institute is fully inclusive, with active membership available to construction industry practitioners from all occupational and educational backgrounds. CI offers individuals and organizations the opportunity to network with other professionals, sharpen skills and shape the future of the industry by participating in technical activities, conferences and the development of internationally recognized standards.

ENGINEERING MECHANICS INSTITUTE (EMI) OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS

Created on October 1, 2007, the Engineering Mechanics Institute (EMI) replaces the former ASCE Engineering Mechanics Division. Enrollees of this former Division now comprise EMI's founding membership.

The mission of the Institute is to serve the engineering community through the development and application of engineering mechanics by anticipating and adapting to new challenges that will face tomorrow's engineers and by creating an environment that facilitates professional growth to ensure that these future challenges will be met. The Institute seeks to establish a presence at the forefront of new thrusts of mechanics by promoting the most innovative developments in the field, regardless of the discipline of the ultimate user. The Institute also seeks to provide a home not only for those involved in the traditional disciplines, but also for those involved with emerging areas of mechanics. Additionally, the Institute seeks to promote the interdependence of engineering mechanics and other disciplines by providing an interdisciplinary forum for researchers, practicing engineers, industry representatives, citizen groups, public officials and others.

The vision for EMI is to be a premier organization representing engineering mechanics by effectively serving the needs of the world-wide engineering mechanics community and promoting both research and application of scientific and mathematical principles to address a broad spectrum of existing and emerging engineering and societal problems.

THE UTILITY ENGINEERING & SURVEYING INSTITUTE

On October 1, 2015, the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) officially established the semiautonomous Utility Engineering & Surveying Institute (UESI). The Utility Engineering & Surveying Institute incorporates the former ASCE Committee on Technical Advancement—Pipelines Division, the Geomatics Division, and the Construction Institute's Utility Engineering Committee.

The Utility Engineering & Surveying Institute is the first national organization designed to meet the needs of all individuals working within the utility, pipeline engineering and surveying/geomatics industry. UESI is fully inclusive, with active membership available to industry practitioners from all occupational and educational backgrounds. UESI offers individuals and organizations the opportunity to network with other professionals, sharpen skills and shape the future of the industry by participating in technical activities, conferences, and the development of internationally recognized standards.

Vision — To be the worldwide leader in generating products and services that promote and reward excellence in engineering, planning, design, construction, operations, and asset management for utility infrastructure and engineering surveying.

CIVIL ENGINEERING CERTIFICATION, INC.

Civil Engineering Certification, Inc. (CEC) was created in 2004 by the ASCE Board of Direction to provide a mechanism for the post-licensure certification of the various specialties within civil engineering. CEC will partner, where appropriate, with other professional organizations to implement specialty certification. Specialty certification complements the goals of the ASCE through:

- Developing Leadership—through the promotion of specialty certification as a vehicle for post licensure professional development.
- Advancing Technology—through the development of specialized bodies of knowledge for utilization during the certification process.
- Advocating Lifelong Learning—through the requirement of ongoing professional development in the certification process after achieving licensure and professional experience.
- Promoting the Profession—through the provision of specialty certification as a broadly recognized, specialized credential in the practice of civil engineering.

Certifications within the engineering and scientific community have demonstrated substantial benefits to individual participants, clients, and the public. These benefits include:

- Certification is an advanced qualification beyond licensure recognized by clients, employers, peers, and the public.
- Certification provides tangible evidence that an individual has excelled in their specialty field.
- Certification demonstrates attainment of a body of knowledge within a specialty area of civil engineering and commitment to stay current on new technological innovations.
- Certification demonstrates a strong commitment to professionalism through its ethics and continuing professional development requirements.
- Certification allows civil engineers to maintain significant input into the advanced credentialing process.
- Certification provides clients with an assurance that they are engaging highly qualified participants on their projects.
- Certification supports the concept of Qualifications Based Selection (QBS).

Individual certification programs are developed by administrative units within CEC with the participation of the appropriate ASCE Institute or technical unit.

CEC established its first administrative unit, the American Academy of Water Resources Engineers (AAWRE), in October 2004, along with the Board-Certified Water Resources Engineer (BC.WRE) certification. In October 2008, CEC launched its second unit, the Academy of Geo-Professionals (AGP), introducing the Board-Certified Geotechnical Engineer (BC.GE) certification. The third unit, the Academy of Coastal, Ocean, Port & Navigation Engineers (ACOPNE), was founded in October 2009 and offers four certifications: Board-Certified Coastal Engineer (BC.CE), Board-Certified Ocean Engineer (BC.OE), Board-Certified Port Engineer (BC.PE), and Board-Certified Navigation Engineer (BC.NE). In 2023, the Utility Engineering and Surveying Certification Board (UESCB) was established to oversee the Board-Certified Pipeline Engineer-Water (BC.PLW) certification.

The 2024-2025 CEC Board of Directors are:

- Paul Boulos, Ph.D., Dist.D.NE, BC.WRE (Hon.), NAC, NAE, Dist.M.ASCE, President
- Karen C. Kabbes, P.E., ENV SP, BC.WRE, F.ASCE, President Elect

ACADEMY OF COASTAL, OCEAN, PORT & NAVIGATION ENGINEERS

The Academy of Coastal, Ocean, Port & Navigation Engineers (ACOPNE) was founded in October 2009 under the leadership and guidance of members from ASCE's Coasts, Oceans, Ports & Rivers Institute (COPRI) and was the third Academy created within Civil Engineering Certification, Inc. (CEC). ACOPNE has four board certifications: Board-Certified Coastal Engineer (BC.CE); Board-Certified Ocean Engineer (BC.OE); Board-Certified Port Engineer (BC.PE); and Board-Certified Navigation Engineer (BC.NE).

ACOPNE certifications adhere to ASCE Policy statement 568 - Fulfilling the Civil Engineering Body of Knowledge for responsible charge of civil engineering through implementing/establishing post-P.E. license board credentialing to validate attainment of competency for responsible charge.

The COPNE-Profession comprises the individuals and professional organizations that are engaged in the sustainable development and protection of coastal, oceans, port, and navigation environments for the benefit of society. The Academy has in part been created to complement the Coasts, Oceans, Ports and Rivers Institute (COPRI) and provides recognition to those individuals who have excelled in one or more of the disciplines embraced by COPRI. In this regard, the Academy has defined the following specialty fields of expertise consistent with the disciplines contained in COPRI.

Coastal Engineering. Coastal engineering involves the practice of civil engineering, as well as the sciences of oceanography, meteorology and coastal geology concerned with the interactions between water and land, including shorelines, bays, lakes, estuaries, inlets, river mouths, and harbors, and the structures within these environments.

Ocean Engineering. Ocean engineering involves the practice of civil engineering and the sciences of oceanography and meteorology concerned with the design, analysis, operation, and planning of systems that operate in the oceanic environment.

Port Engineering. Port Engineering involves the practice of civil, structural, mechanical and environmental engineering concerned with the planning, design, construction, maintenance, operation, environmental protection, and technical functioning of dock and shoreside facilities and systems used to handle or convey people or product.

Navigation Engineering. Navigation Engineering involves the planning, design, construction and maintenance of harbors, marinas and waterways by employing works such as dredging, breakwaters, locks and dams, ice and sedimentation control contrivances, and flow training structures in an environmentally sensitive manner to facilitate the safe and efficient operation of vessels in transit or at berth, especially considering the behavior and performance of vessels subject to environmental forces, sediment related issues, traffic movement and vessel handling.

The objectives of the ACOPNE are to improve the practice, elevate the standards, and advance the COPNE-Profession for the benefit of the public by:

- Certifying professional engineers with specialized knowledge in the areas of coastal, port, ocean, or navigation engineering.
- Recognizing ethical and technical practice.
- Supporting and promoting positions on professional issues important to the public health, safety, and welfare.
- Encouraging life-long learning and continued professional development.
